Post Office [illegible]

While living in Missouri he was elected to various township offices and also served as justice of the peace. In 1867 he was made a Mason, and now belongs to Linwood Lodge No. 241, A. F. & A. M. His marriage September 13, 1867, united him with Miss Isabel Plily, who died May 25, 1896, leaving four sons: John, who is principal of the high school at Columbus, Iowa; Douglas Enos, who is a farmer and operates a sawmill in Sherman Township; and Samuel G.

EDWARD SHIVELY, a member of one of Douglas County's pioneer families, is a son of Joseph M. and Mary (Ulrich) Shively, to whose sketch upon another page the reader is referred for the family history. He was born in this county September 9, 1867, and grew to manhood on the home farm, acquiring his education in the common schools. Early made familiar with agriculture, it was not strange that he should select this occupation for his life calling, and the success with which he is meeting proves the wisdom of his choice. May 6, 1889, he was united in marriage with Miss Ella Stutsman, a native of this county. Her father, the late John Stutsman, came from Indiana to Kansas about 1860 and settled in Marion Township, where he engaged in farm pursuits until his death.

After his marriage Mr. Shively purchased one hundred and sixty acres of land adjoining his boyhood's home in Marion Township, this tract being a portion of his father's property. Here he began farming and stock-raising. His industry and good management caused him to prosper. In 1898 he purchased an additional seventy acres, making his present farm one of two hundred and thirty acres. In addition to his work as a farmer he has assisted his father in inventing and patenting a corn harvesting machine, which in mechanical arrangement presents many remarkable features capable of construction only by an inventive genius. The patent has been purchased by the Deering Harvester Company, by whom the machine is now in process of construction, and one is now on exhibition at Mr. Shively's home.

Politically Mr. Shively has never identified himself with any organization, but votes independently and for the men whom he considers best qualified for office. He is a member of the German Baptist Church and a contributor to its various enterprises. He and his wife are the parents of five children, Myrtle R., Ivy M., Clyde E., Mary Elizabeth and Floyd H.

AUGUST ZIESENIS, who follows farming just outside the limits of Eudora, Douglas County, was born in Hanover, Germany, November 22, 1829. His parents died when he was a child. In youth he served for four years at the cabinet-maker's trade and at twenty he was drafted into the German army, but, not being willing to serve, he ran away and came to the United States without passport or papers of any kind. After a voyage of thirty-five days he landed in New York, in May, 1850. Proceeding to Chicago he worked at his trade. From 1853 to 1855 he was employed in Cincinnati, Ohio. He then became connected with the quartermaster's department of the regular army as a carpenter and accompanied General Kearney's expedition to Pierce, Neb. After continuing in the government employ for a few months he went to Chicago and resumed work at his trade.

In 1857 Mr. Ziesenis accompanied the original town company to Eudora, Kans., and built the first house in the village, purchased some lots and assisted in laying out the town. Several of the early houses and stores were erected under his supervision. About 1857 he bought twenty-nine acres of land in the Shawnee reservation and built a small cabin on the site of his present home. At the time of coming to Kansas the days of the border ruffianism were drawing to a close, but he took his part in bringing them to an end, although of course not participating in the adventures of earlier days. He was in Lawrence when the governor sent the border ruffians to control the election and he was one of the party that captured them. At this writing he has in his possession an old musket captured during the melee. In 1862 he enlisted in Company E, Twelfth Kan-

Niederdorf

Thommen, Durs, of Oberdorff (!).
Margret Rickenbacher from Rotenflue, his wife.
1. Martin, their son.
Barbara Mohlerin from Eptingen, his wife.
Their children:
2. Hans (son of Martin).
3. Durss. 4. Hans Joggi. 5. Catharina. 6. Anna, (children of Durs above).
Has 3100 pounds of property (RP even 3497.1).
Pays: Ten percent tax. . . . . .310.—
Manumission for himself and his wife . . . . 20.— 330.—

Durs Thommen's family had also been touched by the pietistic movement before leaving Switzerland. In 1732 his wife and his daughter Catharina had been taken to task for staying away from the Lord's Supper and, on applying for permission to emigrate, he himself had to answer a charge of 'Quakerism,' though the Conventus Ecclesiasticus declared him to be innocent of it.

In Pennsylvania his whole family except his sons Martin and Durs came under the influence of the Seventhday Baptists or Dunkards in their neighborhood. His son Hans Jacob and his daughters Catharina and Anna went to live with them at Ephrata, where the first two died as early as 1739 and 1742, followed by their mother before the close of the year (Briefe an d'Annone 921). Coming to Pennsylvania with a handsome sum of money, he had been able to buy a farm of 350 acres with two houses and barns at the price of £ 360 Pennsylvania or lb. 2700 Basel currency at 'Quitobihila' (Quitopahilla). In 1749 a sworn statement called him 'un homme fort riche et de Probité et de bonne Renommée, demeurant a Libanon.' In the meantime he had kept up connection with Basel by private and official correspondence.[1] The government had asked him for information as to how he had found things, and repeatedly countrymen who desired the release of inheritances had asked for his support of their petitions. In 1768 we shall meet with his son Martin and his grandson Johannes, called Hans above, who then made an attempt to resettle in the Canton of Basel.

Has 1700 pounds worth of property which makes

He and his wife had also not remained untouched by the pietist movement and early in 1722 Gmeli, who emigrated to Pennsylvan later on, had held a meeting at their smithy which caused muc sensation. In 1736 he had to answer a charge of 'Quakerism In 1740 he was still living in Pennsylvania.

II. Emigrants not recorded in MP

BASEL

N. N., herdsman of the Aeschen Suburb.

Gerster says in his letter of 1737 that he came in the same shi with him and the other emigrants to Pennsylvania, but does nc seem to have learned his name.

AMT FARNSBURG

Diegten

Margreth Eck, daughter of Fridlin, bapt. Nov. 24, 1709.
Had less than 100 pounds left. Emigrated because of lack of harmony wit her step-mother, and found, as Gerster tells us, a husband in Pennsylvania durin her first year. Her Obervogt had said of her that she was going to the "Island of Carolina.

Gelterkinden

Hans Georg Gerster, son of Hans Georg Gerster, of Gelterkinden and Elsbet Sparr from Herzogenbuchsee, Canton of Bern.

Hans Georg Gerster, to whose two long letters of 1737 and 174 (Briefe an d'Annone 242 and 243) we owe so much valuable infor mation concerning the fate of the Basel emigrants on their voyages and afterward, had the misfortune to be born illegitimate. His father repudiated his mother and believed that he had done his duty by allowing her a small consideration. Both the Canton of Basel where he was born and raised and the Canton of Bern, the home of his mother, refused to acknowledge him as a citizen. The courts of Bern declared that he belonged by his birth to Basel. Those of Basel maintained that through his mother he was entitled to citizenship in Bern. His amiable Christian character was of no avail to him. He had to emigrate to Pennsylvania in order to be admitted to citizenship. His old mother and his young bride, whom we shall meet below accompanied him.

and showed warm attachment
frends and relatives at home or in Pa. wher it was reciproc by Christen Schäublin who came with them.

to this he was robbed of a ship in which he was conducting emigrants to the sea, there is some likelihood that he was ruined and that the statement of Jacob Schaub that he lost money by going bail for him is true (RP 141, Dec. 28, 1768).—A personal description of him, of the year 1751, says that he measured 4½ feet, sported a silk neckcloth, Hamburg stockings and city shoes, a cane and a couteau. Had a round sunburnt face, a large broad nose, dark eyes and dark curly hair and an 'aufgeworffenes grosses Maul' (up-turned large mouth).[1]

Schneider, Niclaus, of Brattelen, (linen-weaver), aged 34.
Elssbet Brogli, his wife. Have no children.
Pays: Ten percent tax on 128 pounds.................12.—
Manumission.................................20.— 32.—

KB states that he went with his wife to Carolina.

Stohler, Fridlin, of Brattelen, (smith).
Anna Maria Heyd, his wife.
Their children:

1. Elssbet, bapt.	Aug.	25, 1709
2. Anna Maria, bapt.	Sept.	23, 1714
3. Anna, bapt.	Oct.	9, 1718
4. Fridlin, bapt.	Aug.	12, 1727

Pays: Ten percent tax on 250 pounds................25.—
Manumission.................................20.— 45.—

KB adds to the dates of the last two children: 'in Carolina.' He and especially his wife belonged also to the pietists of Pratteln, but came less into conflict with the pastor and the authorities than Maria Martin.

Till, Niclaus, of Brattelen, (linen-weaver and marksman), aged 41.
Anna Maria Düring, (from Lausen), his wife.
Their children:

1. Anna, bapt.	Apr.	12, 1722
2. Hans Jacob, bapt.	Sept.	21, 1723
3. Anna Maria, bapt.	Febr.	12, 1725
4. Cathri, bapt.	June	9, 1726
5. Niclaus, bapt.	March	11, 1731
6. Johannes, bapt.	Jan.	24, 1735

Gratis. Has only 85 pounds worth of property left.

KB: Anna Cathrina instead of Cathri, besides in connection with each of the children a note referring to Carolina. A letter by Joh. Ulrich Giezendanner, a pietist who had sought religious toleration in Carolina, of Apr. 23, 1737 ('Briefe an d'Annone 244') contains the sad information that two of the children died on the voyage and the father himself ten days after arrival in Carolina.

JACOB B. SHIVELY, who resides on section 11, Perry Township, is a son of John Shively, one of the earliest pioneers of Perry Township. John Shively was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, December 17, 1805, a son of Jacob Shively, who was born, reared and married in the State of Pennsylvania. The latter settled in Montgomery County, Ohio, in an early day, and many years after his son John came to this county he removed to Carroll County, Indiana, where he and his wife spent the remainder of their days. He reared a family of seven children, of whom three are yet living—John, living in Carroll County, near Camden; Christian, a resident of Illinois, and Esther, wife of Henry Metzger, of Carroll County. A daughter, Catherine, married Daniel Wagoner, and died in Carroll County; Jacob died at his home near Camden, and Elizabeth, wife of David Wagoner, died in Carroll County. Jacob Shively, the father of the above children, was the first to pass away, his death being caused by a tree falling on him. John Shively, the father of our subject, was reared in Montgomery County, Ohio, to the vocation of a farmer, which he followed the greater part of his life. He was married in Ohio to Miss Esther Ulrey. In 1823 he started for Tippecanoe County, Indiana, where he entered a tract of land on sections 11 and 12, Perry Township, on which he settled and there made a good farm. His land, when he settled on it, was in a state of nature, heavily covered with timber, but by persevering industry and good management he made a good home out of the forest and brought his land under fine cultivation. He was bereaved by the death of his wife in 1880, after a happy married life of more than half a century. Mr. Shively was again married to Miss Elizabeth Bomer, of Carroll County, and after this marriage, in 1882, he removed with his wife to Carroll County, and has since made his home near Camden. By his first marriage he had six children who grew to maturity, three sons and three daughters, and of these four are still living—Mrs. Elizabeth Wagoner, Jacob B., Hester, wife of Joseph Felix, of Carroll County, and John, of Detroit, Michigan. David died at the age of eighteen years, and Susannah, who was the wife of Henry Kuntz, died in Clinton County. John Shively, Sr., was a typical pioneer and a representative citizen, and during his long residence in this county he gained the confidence and respect of all who knew him. He settled in the county when the now thriving city of La Fayette was but a hamlet of two or three dwellings, and has seen the surrounding country change from a wilderness into well-cultivated farms and pleasant homes. He has been a minister in the German Baptist church for a half century, and although eighty-two years of age, he is still actively engaged in the ministry. He organized the Pyrmont Baptist church, from which the Middle Fork and the Fairview churches have since been formed. His son, Jacob B. Shively, whose name heads this sketch, is now the only representative of his father living in

It sure seems like you have definite proof that Jacob Shively's wife was Elizabeth Martin instead of Elizabeth Cripe since you saw Christian's marriage to Mrs. Hannah Replogle, in Piatt Co. I didn't have their marriage dates- thanks for this info.

Georia Williams

I found this article in the San Francisco library. Note it says Old Jacob Shively had seven children - we have 8. But, History can be wrong. Also, note the Elder John md 2nd to Miss Elizabeth Bomer not Elizabeth Eikenberry Bowser. Carroll Co. marriages has John Shively md. Elizabeth Bonser Jan 23, 1881.

An Elizabeth Shively (1826-1911) is buried alone in the Moss cemetery where as Elder John is buried alone at Pyrmont.

Can you figure this out?

Tippecanoe County, and he is the owner of eighty acres of the land entered by his father when he settled in the county. He was born on the old homestead where he now lives, in a primitive log house, the date of his birth being September 8, 1836. Here he was reared amid the scenes of pioneer life, and here he has always lived, a period of fifty-one years. He was married October 29, 1857, to Miss Ann Eliza Mohler, who was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, August 12, 1839, a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Zimmerman) Mohler, who settled in Wabash County, Indiana, in an early day. Her father died in Wabash County. Her mother is still living. Mr. and Mrs. Shively are the parents of two sons--Levi Edwin, born March 10, 1861, resides on part of the old homestead, and John Owen, who was born March 20, 1870. Mr. Shively is now the owner of a fine farm of 164 acres of land, which is well improved and under a high state of cultivation. In his political views he is a Republican, and is a strong adherent of the principles of that party. His first Presidential vote was cast for Abraham Lincoln. Both he and his wife are worthy and consistent members of the German Baptist church.

ELIZABETH MUSSELMAN

Elizabeth Musselman, known to her many friends as "Betsy" Musselman, died Saturday, November 24, at the Central Hospital for the Insane at Indianapolis, where she had been confined for the past fourteen years. Her illness had been of several years' duration. The body was brought back to Flora and taken to the home of a half-brother, William Eikenberry. The funeral was held Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the Old Order church, of which she had been a member for many years. Interment was made in the Musselman cemetery, north of the city.

Elizabeth Ann Musselman, daughter of Christian and Sarah Musselman, was born about three and one-half miles northeast of Camden April 1, 1855, making her at the time of her demise 62 years, 7 months and 23 days, of age. CRIPE—Harvey Leonard, infant son of John O. and Mary A. Cripe, Grandson of Lottie A. Cripe, of Rossville, Ind., and of John F. and Alice Wolf, of Rio Oso, Calif., Was born near Rio Oso, Calif., Jan. 13, 1927, departed this life Jan. 24, 1927. Age, 11 days. He leaves to mourn his early departure, father, mother, 2 brothers, 1 sister namely Mary Elizabeth, John Edward, Harold Leroy. (The latter being a twin brother of the departed one.) Also 2 grandmothers, 1 grandfather, with many other sympathizing relatives and friends. His sickness was a duration of only about 3 days. Disease, pneumonia. Little Harveys' stay with us was short, but we all learned to love him most dearly. A sweet flower budded on earth to bloom in heaven. Jesus said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of heaven." Short services were held at the house by Andrew Marconett, from the 18th Chap. of St. Matt. 1st to 7th verses. Hymns 369-370-374 were sung. Interment in the Fair View cemetery. Sutter Co., Calif.

Written by his Aunt Martha M. Wolf.

CRASH VICTIM.

MRS. MOSES S. CRIPE.

Funeral services for Mrs. Moses S. Cripe, aged 67, of 623 South Union street, who was killed shortly before 8 p. m. Monday in an automobile accident, will take place at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in Bubb chapel. Rev. S. O. Redacre, of Sebring, O., formerly of this city, will officiate and burial will be in Fairview cemetery. Members of the Sunshine club will be pallbearers. Other members of the Sunshine club will go to the chapel at 2:15 p. m. and will attend services in a body.

Mrs. Cripe was fatally injured when the car in which she was riding with Mr. Cripe was struck as it turned into the driveway of the Merle E. Fall farm, rural route No. 6, South Bend. The Cripe car skidded on the slippery pavement when Mr. Cripe applied the brakes to turn into the driveway and the car sidewiped a car driven by Frank S. Galbraith, of Bremen, Ind. Mr. Cripe and the occupants of the Galbraith car were not seriously injured.

A 67-year-old Mishawaka woman, Mrs. Amanda Cripe, 623 South Union street, who left for a nearby farm early today to buy milk for herself and several neighbors was killed shortly before 8 o'clock when the car in which she was riding was struck as it turned into the driveway of the Merl E. Fall farm, rural route No. 6, box No. 122A. Her husband, Moses S. Cripe, 70, was driving the car, which was traveling south on Miami road. He works for the Mishawaka city water and electric plant.

The other car involved in the crash was being driven north on Miami road by Frank S. Galbraith, 38, of Bremen, Ind., reportedly an employe of the Studebaker corporation. Also in his car were his two sons, Fred, 12, and Evan, eight. The three were treated at Epworth hospital for minor cuts and shock. The boys were released and Mr. Galbraith is reported to be in good condition.

According to the sheriff's report, Mr. Cripe's car skidded on the slippery pavement when he applied the brakes to turn into the farm driveway on the east side of the road. His car is reported to have been sideswiped on the right side by the left side of the oncoming Galbraith vehicle.

The only local survivor of the victum, in addition to her husband, who suffered minor shock in the crash, is a grandson, Wadsworth Ewers, of 310 East Edgar street, Mishawaka.

Mrs. Cripe was born in Wabash county, Indiana, July 30, 1874, and went to Mishawaka in 1919 from South Bend. She was married in 1893 in Laketon, Ind., to Mr. Cripe. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Reid, of Baker, La.; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Long, of Wabash, Ind., and Mrs. Carrie Day, of Roann, Ind., and two brothers, George Clark, of North Manchester, Ind., and Tolliver Clark, of Wabash county.

Mrs. Cripe was a member of the First Christian church of Mishawaka and of the Sunshine Social club.

Shortly after the crash a three and one-half ton dairy truck approaching the wreckage from the north skidded on the slippery pavement and overturned into a ditch on the east side of the road. The driver was uninjured. The sheriff's emergency station wagon also had difficulty with the slick road, hooking a bumper of one of the wrecked cars as it slid to a halt.

Mr. Martin came to Wabash County with his parents at the age of four years, and has resided at North Manchester ever since. He served the Union cause as a member of the Forty-seventh Regiment Indiana Volunteers. He acquired a common school education, and in young manhood he taught school, and at other times clerked in stores. In 1867, he was married to Miss Anna C. Carson. Seven children blessed this union, only three of whom (Hollis, Fred and Nellie) survive. He was elected Trustee of Chester Township in 1878. Prior to this, he owned the book store in the post office, but sold out in 1879. He then engaged in the stone and marble trade, in which business he is still engaged. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and also a member of the Knights of Honor.

ELI C. OHMART, M. D., physician, North Manchester, is a son of Joel and Phebe (Frantz) Ohmart, and was born May 6, 1859, in Pleasant Township, Wabash Co., Ind. His parents came to this county in 1840, and for many years his father was a school teacher, teaching both German and English. By trade he is a carpenter, but some years ago adopted the farmer's vocation, and purchased a farm about two miles west of North Manchester, where he resided until 1883. The parents are members of the German Baptist Church, in which the father holds the office of Deacon. At the age of fourteen years, the subject of this sketch began teaching school. Later, he entered the Normal College at Valparaiso, Ind., where he graduated. He also attended the college at Oberlin, Ohio, one year. He studied medicine with Dr. Winton, and graduated from the medical college at Ann Arbor, Mich. He was married, September 1, 1878, to Miss Minnie E. Dixson, a native of La Porte, Ind., and daughter of John H. Dixson, a native of Ireland. Her mother, whose maiden name was Mary Calahan, was born at Toronto, Canada. Dr. Ohmart and wife are the parents of three children—Junnie V., Carlyle and Raymond. Dr. Ohmart is the descendant of German ancestors, though of remote date. His father's great-grandfather came to the United States from Germany, and his grandfather came from Virginia to Ohio in 1817, where he died at the age of one hundred and nine years. The grandmother died at the age of sixty-five years. Dr. Ohmart is very pleasantly situated in the city of North Manchester, and enjoys a large and lucrative practice.

JOSIAH PRATT, farmer, P. O. North Manchester, is a son of Joseph and Deborah Pratt, and was born in Wayne County, Ind., December 26, 1820. His father removed with his family to Wabash County, Ind., in 1836, and purchased 160 acres of unimproved land near La Gro, to which he added by other purchases until he owned an entire section of 640 acres. He was a hard-working, energetic man, and, with the assistance of his sons, cleared and improved about 360 acres of land. He had four children, viz., Josiah, Joseph, Eunice and Charlotte, of whom Josiah and Eunice are the only survivors. The mother died in 1828; the father in 1876. Josiah came to Wabash County with his parents at the age of sixteen years, and has resided here ever since. On the 26th of April, 1849, he was married to Cynthia A. Messersmith, a native of Fayette County, Ind., and daughter of Hiram B. and Anna (Martin) Messersmith. By this union they are the parents of fourteen children, of whom thirteen are now living, viz., Frances A., Josiah M., Charlotte J., William F., Mary E., Oliver, Orlando, Emma, Maria, John H., Thomas J., Howard and Edward. Eunice died at the age of seven years. Five are married—Frances to John Bush; Charlotte to Samuel Croomback; Josiah M. to Eliza Miller; Mary E. to William Hippensteel; and William F. to Mary E. Stanton. Mr. Pratt was reared a farmer, and has always followed that occupation. He now has a fine farm of 160 acres two miles west of Laketon, which he purchased with hard-earned wages. It is well-improved and valuable land. He began without capital, and by his industry has placed himself in comfortable circumstances.

JACOB F. REIFF, farmer, P. O. North Manchester, was born in Germany, and came to the United States with his parents in 1852. They settled in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, where the father was engaged at the stone-mason's vocation. His parents were members of the German Lutheran Church. Mr. Reiff was married, October 10, 1867, to Catharine Bear, a native of Ohio, and daughter of Leonard and Sarah (Myers) Bear. They are the parents of nine children, viz., Florence M., John W., Mary E., Delilah J., Henry B., Charles E., Alfred E. B., Daniel I. and Cora, all living save Daniel I. Mr. Reiff is engaged in the pursuit of farming, though in early life he worked at the stone-mason's trade. He has a fine farm of eighty acres, well improved, in Chester Township. During the late war, his brother, John C., served in the Fifty-first Ohio Regiment. He was in the battle at Nashville, and was killed in the engagement at Murfreesboro, Tenn. Mr. Reiff is a member of the Lutheran Church.

ISAAC SHIVELY.

Among the prominent and successful agriculturists of Piatt county none are more deserving of mention in this volume than the gentleman whose name introduces this sketch. He was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, February 8, 1837, and there spent the first fourteen years of his life, at the end of which time he removed to Wabash county, Indiana, with his parents, Christian and Barbara (Ulery) Shively, the family locating near North Manchester. His parents were also natives of Montgomery county, Ohio, and the father was a farmer by occupation. He assisted materially in the early development and upbuilding of Wabash county, Indiana, and spent the greater part of his life in that state, but died at the home of our subject on section 24, Cerro Gordo township, Piatt county, Illinois, when over eighty-eight years of age. His wife had passed away on the old home farm near North Manchester, Indiana. In their family were eight children: Jacob died in infancy; Esther is the wife of John Miller, of North Manchester, Wabash county, Indiana; Samuel died at the age of thirty years; Isaac is next in order of birth; Christian is a resident of Lincoln, Nebraska; Elizabeth married Samuel Blickenstaff and died in Wabash county, Indiana, leaving a family; John H. lives in North Manchester, Indiana; and Barbara died at the age of sixteen years.

Isaac Shively received but a limited education in the common schools of Ohio as his time was almost wholly occupied by the work of the farm. At the age of twenty-two he started out in life for himself as a farmer, near North Manchester, Wabash county, Indiana, and remained there until after his marriage. He wedded Miss Margaret Blickenstaff, a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Gumph) Blickenstaff, and in 1871, accompanied by his wife and three children, he came to Piatt county, Illinois. He purchased the north half of section 24, Cerro Gordo township, some of which was under cultivation, but there were many ponds and much of the land unbroken, but he has since ditched and drained it and made many other improvements to the value of thousands of dollars. In addition to the original purchase he now owns one hundred and twenty acres more, which is well drained. For his first eighty acres he paid twenty-five dollars per acre, for the second eighty thirty dollars, and for the last eighty acres, adjoining it on the east, sixty dollars per acre. He now has four hundred and forty acres, and it is all worth over one hundred dollars per acre, owing to the rise in value and the many improvements he has made thereon. He built two good barns, one, forty by sixty feet, and the other thirty by seventy-eight feet, which will accommodate sixteen head of horses and cattle, and he has corncribs which hold about six thousand bushels. His success in life is due entirely to his own well-directed efforts, being a man of sound judgment and good business ability. He has always made the most of his advantages, and has labored untiringly to make for himself and family a comfortable home and competence. Besides his property in this state, he owns a section of land southwest of Houston, Texas.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Shively were born ten children, seven sons and three daughters, of whom nine are yet living: Elizabeth, the wife of Frank Etnoyer, of Cerro Gordo township; Julia, wife of Jacob Wyne, whose home is near LaPlace in Cerro Gordo township; Daniel, who married May Boone and lives in Cerro Gordo township; John, who married Dora Musselman and also resides in Cerro Gordo township; Samuel, who wedded Annie Musselman, a sister of his brother's wife, and makes his home in the same township; Joseph, who married Nora Duncan and resides in Carroll county, Indiana; Jerome, Ira and Festus, all at home.

For many years Mr. Shively has served as school director and has ever taken an active interest in educational affairs, doing all in his power to secure good teachers and the best advantages along that line. He is a deacon in the German Baptist church of La-Place, in which he and his wife hold membership, and they are active and sincere Christian workers. Mr. Shively is regarded as one of the representative men of his community, as well as one of its most substantial and honored citizens, and is therefore justly deserving of mention in this volume.

SHIVELY, Isaac, president of the La Place State Bank, and one of the leading men of Piatt County, was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, February 8, 1837, a son of Christian and Barbara (Ulrey) Shively, natives of Ohio. In 1851 they moved to Wabash County, Ind., where the mother died October 13, 1880, being nearly seventy-four years old, as she was born August 8, 1806. The father was born February 20, 1809, and died January 24, 1898. At one time while in middle life he owned 2,000 acres of land in Wabash County, Ind. After the death of his first wife, he married (second) Mrs. Hannah Cripe of Illinois.

Isaac Shively lived with his parents in Indiana until 1863, when he went on a farm in Wabash County, Ind., and remained there until in February, 1871, at which time he came to Piatt County, and began farming 320 acres of land he had previously bought. This land was only partially broken, and on it was a small shanty. Mr. Shively began improving the place, adding to it until he owned 860 acres in one tract. From this he has taken land to give his children until he now has only 420 acres of his original homestead, but he also owns 160 acres near Dexter, N. M. In October, 1915, Mr. Shively retired, moving to La Place, where he had purchased a modern residence. Since the organization of the La Place State Bank in 1907, Mr. Shively has been its president, and he is interested along other lines in the county.

On October 1, 1863, Mr. Shively was married to Margaret Blickenstaff, born in Miami County, Ohio, on October 12, 1845, a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Gump) Blickenstaff. Mr. and Mrs. Shively became the parents of the following children: Mary Lizzie, who was born June 15, 1865, is Mrs. Frank Etnoyer of Cerro Gordo Township; Julia, who is Mrs. Jacob Wine, died in January, 1909, aged forty-one years; Daniel, who lives in Cerro Gordo Township; John, who lives at La Place; Nora, who died in 1879, aged five years; Samuel, who lives in Cerro Gordo Township; Joseph, who lives at Lintner, Ill.; Romie, who lives in Cerro Gordo Township; and Festus, who lives on the home place. A member of the Brethren Church, Mr. Shively has served it as a deacon since 1875. For many years, while living in Cerro Gordo Township, Mr. Shively served on the school board, taking an interest in improving educational conditions, for he attended the common schools in his boyhood. Politically he is a Republican, and in every respect he is one of the most representative men this county possesses.

Lincoln Man is Stabbed to Death in California

Body of [redacted] a Conductor, Found Near House Where He Had Been Living.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—The local authorities are endeavoring to solve, by means of the finger print method, the mystery of the death of [redacted] a conductor who was stabbed to death at San Gabriel yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stone, in whose home the tragedy occurred, say they know nothing of the stabbing except that they heard an uproar in the kitchen late last night and found the room in disorder. [redacted] was missing. Later [redacted] was found dead by the roadside some distance from the house.

Foot prints and bloody finger marks were found in the kitchen. Mr. and Mrs. Stone are under arrest. They came here from Lincoln, Neb. Their home is decorated with University of Nebraska pennants, banners and photographs.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 3. — The coroner's jury, in the case of Morgan Shively, a Pacific Electric railroad conductor, who was killed early yesterday at the home of G. S. Stone, San Gabriel, returned a verdict, and recommended that Stone and his wife be held, although the verdict says the wounds were inflicted by persons unknown.

Shively died as a result of the severing of the ulna artery in the forearm. This wound was caused by a knife, which inflicted other numerous wounds during a desperate battle in the kitchen of the Stone home after midnight Sunday. The body was found nude, lying in the mud in the roadway several hours following the tragedy, after Stone and wife, who were hysterical, awoke neighbors and declared that the conductor was killed by robbers.

The sheriff took Stone into custody after a searching investigation.

Many mysterious circumstances connected with the killing remain to be cleared.

That all the clothing Shively wore previous to the time he leaped through the kitchen window in a nude state, were burned in the kitchen range, is an established fact, but no reason for any murder is known.

CATHERINE ULRY STROOP.

C427.1 C155.1

Catherine Ulry Stroop, only daughter of John C. and Susan Ulry, was born April 10, 1844, in Montgomery county, Ohio, and departed this life July 12, 1919, at the home of her daughter Mrs. B. F. Oram, in Logansport, Indiana, age 75 years, 3 months and 2 days. Mrs. Stroop moved with her parents to Miami county, Indiana at an early age and located on what is known as the Elihu Plummer farm in Pipe Creek township. Here she grew to womanhood and in 1859 was united in marriage to Moses S. Stroop. This union was blessed with nine childred of whom Nellie, Charles, Minta, Mary and Sut, preceded her to the Spirit Land. Those now living to mourn their loss are, Mrs. Frank Oram, Logansport, Ind.; Mrs. Henry Longley, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Dave and John Stroop, both of Mobile, Alabama.

Mr. Stroop being in delicate health, with his wife and estimable family decided to try a chance of climate and in the year 1885 they moved to Chattanooga, Tennessee, all to no avail, however, as he died on July 18, 1887, the wife and mother being called upon to assume the responsibilities, incidental to rearing a large family alone, a work, which few have done more admirably. When Father Time began to lay his hand too heavily upon her, she decided to spend her declining years with her children, and every season she changed from North to South, where she was always loved and respected by everyone, old and young, rich and poor.

She was a consistent member of the church of the Brethren, having affiliated herself with this church early in life. No one could come in contact with such a beautiful character and not feel the benign influence of all that was worthy of imitation.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Oram, in Cass county, Sunday at 4 p. m., after which the body was shipped to Chattanooga, Tennessee, accompanied by the immediate relatives. Burial will take place in the beautiful Forest Hill Cemetery at that place. Thus closes the life of one of the good mothers in Israel.

CATHERINE ULRY STROOP

Catherine Ulry Stroop, only daughter of John C. and Susan Ulry, was born April 10, 1845, in Montgomery county, Ohio, and departed this life July 13, 1919, at the home of her daughter Mrs. B. F. Those now living to mourn their loss are, Mrs. Frank Oram, Logansport, Ind.; Mrs. Henry Longley, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Dave and John Stroop, both of Mobile, Alabama.

Mr. Donald Bowman

Dear Mr. Bowman:

Since it is my understanding that you have searched out data on most (if not all) of the early German Baptists and Dunkards in Montgomery County, and knowing that you descend from many of them, as do I, I am about to ask you for help!

I've researched my Dad's family branches, and had little or no difficulty. In the past year, however, I've started working on my mother's side (Bright, Diehl, Ullery, Shively, etc.), and this is where my problems exist.

For example, I knew that Owen G. Shively was the s/o Christian Shively & Susannah Gripe/Cripe/Creib. However, I kept coming up with Christian Shively/Susannah Gripe in two time periods, so therefore reached what I HOPE is the correct conclusion -- that Christian who m. Susannah Gripe was also the s/o Christian and yet another Susannah Gripe. I've figured it as follows, and would appreciate any corrections/additions you might have for me:

Ulrich Shively & Elizabeth Thomas:
Their son, Christian Shively, Sr., married Susannah Gripe, d/o Jacob Gripe & Elizabeth Ulrich. They had these children:

1. Jacob, m. Elizabeth Gripe 1767-1839
* 2. Christian, Jr., m. Susannah Gripe 1770-1836
3. Daniel L., M. Susannah Ulrich 1773-1818
4. John, M. #1 Esther Wolf; M. #2, Catherine Ullery, d/o Stephen Ullery and Susannah Rench, and widow of John Gripe. 1775-1848
5. Susannah, m. Stephen Ulrich; m. #2 Henry Harshbarger 1778-1848
6. Elizabeth, m. Peter Repogle 1783-1865
7. David, M. Hannah Gripe 1787-1867

* 2. (above) Christian Shively, Jr., M. Susannah Gripe, d/o John Gripe and Elizabeth Rench. Their children were:

1. David, b. ca. 1799
2. Christina, d. young (b. ca. 1800?)
3. John, 1804-1815
4. William, b. ca. 1806; d. after 1841 (was he called "UHLI"?)
5. Daniel, b. ca. 1809-11; d. young
6. Elizabeth, M. Daniel Hay 1809-1891
7. Susan, M. John Ullery (she was b. ca. 1814)
* 8. Owen G., M. Hannah Ullery on 1 Jan. 1845, St. Joseph Co., Ind.

9. Samuel, m. Lydia Ullery

*8. Owen Gripe Shively, b. 3 Nov. 1815; M. 1 Jan. 1845, St. Joseph Co., Ind., to Hannah Ullery, d/o Joseph Ullery & Catharine Gripe. Owen died, Montgomery Co., on 25 Nov. 1904; Hannah died on 26 Jan. 1890, Montg. Co., both buried Old Bear Creek. This is what I have for their children:

1. Christian R., b. 9 Dec. 1845; d. 10 Jan. 1924, Unm.
Mine  2. Susannah, b. 16 July 1847; M. 7 Dec. 1871, to Jacob Rife Bright. Susannah d. 22 Apr. 1913.
3. Elizabeth, b. 1849; d. 1934, M. Levi A. Harris
4. Joseph U., b. 1850; d. 1936, M. Martha Brubaker.
5. Noah H., b. 1855; d. ca. 1940; M. Mary Blosser.
6. Hester (Esther), B. ca. 1856; M. Emmanuel Brumbaugh.
7. Francis Marian, b. July 1858; M. 28 Dec. 1902 to Elizabeth Rife. He died in 1928.
8. Aaron Vernon, b. ca. 1860; d. Jan. 1914; wife's name, Alice.
9. John Daniel, b. ca. 1862; M. Elizabeth Brubaker.

#7 - Francis Marian Shively & Elizabeth Rife had no children.

#5 - Noah Shively & Mary Blosser. Found nothing about them, but my mother "thought" that they adopted a daughter, Helen, who m. Ora Blosser.

#4 - Joseph U. Shively and Martha Brubaker - parents of Edith who m. Cary Diehl; Edward F., wife Lucille; Amy E., 1889-1920
NOTE: I'm sure of Edith & Edward; Amy, I'm not certain of, except that she was buried with Joseph & Martha.

#6 - Hester (Esther) & Emmanuel Brumbaugh: My mother said they had a daughter, Ada, who m. Arden Kleppinger and lived near Brookville.

#8 - Aaron Shively & Alice - nothing.

#9 - John Daniel Shively & Elizabeth Brubaker. I ASSUME that they were the parents of Frank Shively, M.D., but I'm not sure about any others.

As I stated before, I'm really just beginning on these lines, so can probably pick up on the children of Owen & Hannah, with a bit more searching.

I do, however, have a couple of questions: Several Shively researchers have said that, since Owen G. Shively was not named in the Will of his father, that possibly he was called "Uhli". I do not subscribe to this theory at all. My mother's brother was named "Owen Earl Diehl" -- the Owen being for Owen Shively, and my mother never heard him referred to as anything other than "Owen Shively". I have also been told that Owen had nothing to do with his father's Estate, other than that he would up with the Jefferson Twp. land which had been his father's, and which was left to "Ullery". However, the Estate papers of Christian Shively show that the entire Estate was held up, and still being distributed in 1840, at which time Owen was one of the Executors. The Estate papers in 1840 mentioned the "heirs of Adam Shively". Who was Adam, do you know?

I have also been told that the Owen who m. Hannah Ullery in St. Joseph Co., Ind. may not have been MY Owen. However, my assumption on this xx is that, since the Ullery's went to South Bend, that was probably why Owen & Hannah were married there.

My family had always been told that the old Owen Shively home on Lutheran Church Rd. was the "original" Shively homestead. I got to checking on that one, just recently, and felt rather silly, when I found the old Shively stone house at Hoover & Olive Rds. That, of course, was the "original" home, and, as a kid, I wandered past that house so many times, and always thought it so beautiful. I went out there the other day, with my mother, who, of course, remembered the house, but had no idea that it tied with her family! The road back near the house was roped off, so I didn't venture in, but I'm sure that, by now, the stones in the cemetery are unreadable, anyway. Also, I do have the original readings of the old cemetery.

I do hope that you can make some sense out of this, and that you will have the time to help me out. I know that, at one time, Elizabeth Lane, who is a first cousin to our Minister, Rev. J. Calvin Bright, and a second cousin to my mother, was working on all of these families. However, I believe that she is now "off and running" on something else, so I didn't want to ask her anything.

Have enclosed SASE, and Thank You.

Sincerely,

Susan

Susan (Pottenger) White
(Mrs. Rudolph P. White)

P.S. Susannah Shively / Jacob Rife Bright were my Great-Grandparents. Their daughter, Sarah Angenora (Nora) m. Ulysses Elwood Diehl. → their daughter, Susan Catharine, m. Frank Newton Pottenger, and they [illegible] my parents.

P.S. I also placed an order - Brookville Hist. Soc. for the 1910 Montg. Co. Twp. Census, which will help.

This is an experimental genealogy with numerous errors, etc. Many of the errors are due to Family Tree Maker's merge glitches and I am slowly finding and correcting them. With each update there are many new individuals and many duplicates and meaningless entries are gone. The monstrous number of folks that I list in my database would be impossible for one person to properly and thoroughly research. I add possibly related family lines when I find them, depending on the research and honesty of others.

HOWARD SHIVELY CRASH VICTIM

c1428-4.1

Transport Truck and Automobile Crash Just South of Peru.

Howard Shively, 63, was killed, and his wife Mrs. Goldie Shively, 62, was critically injured, when their automobile and a loaded transport truck driven by Benj. Crandall, 30, of 4324 W. Lipton street, Milwaukee, Wis., crashed headon on Highway 21, near the junction of the Bobtail pike, south of Peru, Saturday at 11:40 a. m.

Alfred Lindstrom, 43, of Kenosha, Wis., who was riding with Crandall in the cab of the truck was not injured.

Howard Shively, in the collision was caught under the steering wheel. His chest was crushed, and there were severe cuts and bruises on his body. He was taken to the Dukes hospital in the Brookman ambulance and he died there Sunday. The body was taken to the Larrison mortuary in Converse. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Pleasant Grove church, Rev. Carroll Rouch offciated, and the burial took place in the cemetery near by.

Mrs Goldie Shively is still at the Dukes hospital. She has one leg fractured, a skull fracture and chest injuries.

Benj. Crandall is also a patient at the Dukes hospital, he and Mrs. Shively having both been taken there in the Eikenberry ambulance. The latter's injuries include a possible fracture of the spine, chest and back injuries.

It is reported that Mr. and Mrs. Shively had come up onto the pavement from the Miami Locker plant. When the car landed back onto the concrete the transport was coming from the south at a rate of 35 miles per hour.

Crandall and Lindstrom stated that they noticed the Shively automobile on the berm of the highway and the next instant the car got back onto the concrete and was headed directly toward them. Crandall said he made an effort to avoid the crash but it failed. The truck was headed into the bank at the east side of the road and the left side of the cab was wrecked. The automobile in which the Shivelys were riding was badly damaged.

A Native of Peru.

Mr. Shively, a farmer, was born in Peru on July 31, 1883, the son of Christopher and Angeline (Sullivan) Shively He was a member of the Somerset Masonic lodge.

Shively Quits Car Business- But Plans Plenty Of Driving!

11-5-1958

By ERNEST MAZZATENTA
Tribune Staff Writer

Glen E. Shively, one of Peru's veteran car dealers, announced his retirement Tuesday, after 46 years in the automobile business.

During forty of those years, Shively has sold the same car — Dodge—at the same address—35 W. Third.

Now, the building will be used by another car agency currently expanding its service facilities.

"It's been a pleasure to deal with the people of Peru and Miami County" Shively stated. "However, I want to be a little bit footloose for a change."

He and Mrs. Shively plan an extended trip to California this winter and, naturally, they'll drive.

The trip will be nothing new to the veteran car dealer. "I'll bet I have driven to California 25 times," he estimated.

This time, he'll be visiting relatives there.

SHIVLEY entered the car business in 1912, establishing himself in Bunker Hill. Here, he sold the Overland auto, a large, four-cylinder car with interior upholstery in leather.

In 1913-14, he sold the Ford car. During his stay in Bunker Hill, he also handled the one-seat Saxon and the Partin and Palmer, a six-cylinder, touring car.

"The Saxon was a sassy, little car which weighed only about 1,000 pounds" he said.

In 1916, Shivley bought a Metz car for his own use.

What makes the transaction worth recalling is the fact that the auto did not come securely anchored to a huge car transport, as most cars do today.

It came in a crate!

After emptying the crate of its contents, the industrious Peruvian proceeded to put it together. Within a few days time, he had transformed the box of parts into a workable roadster.

Apparently, the car was properly assembled for it served its owner well over the roughest, unpaved roads. Shivley noted that he drove the car as far as Indianapolis, which was considered a "long haul" in those days.

IN 1918, Shively moved to Peru and began selling the Dodge line of cars.

"Cars were very experimental in the early days", Shively said, "but later Dodge came out with a four-cylinder car which was among the country's first dependable models."

What was the biggest defect in the first cars?

"The bugaboo was tires going out at low mileage," he revealed.

The first tires were a skinny three or four inches in diameter, and were unable to take the bumps, he said.

Most tires were only guaranteed for 3,500 miles, and some of them gave out after only 500 miles, he recalled.

WHAT DOES the veteran car-dealer think of today's high-finned, chrome-laden creations?

"I think it's wonderful the way they ride and handle. But I believe they've gone the limit on accessories and automatic features. I think they're going to work into a more economical car next, one which won't require as much gasoline."

Shively said he did not know when another Dodge dealer would be established in the city.

During his long period of business in Peru, the 77-year-old car dealer has also found time to participate in many worthwhile civic and religious activities.

For the past 30 years, he has been a member of the YMCA Board of Directors, and an indefatigable worker in all the Y's fund-raising drives.

He is also a charter member of the Kiwanis Club of Peru, and a member of the Methodist Church and the Masonic Lodge.

Shively is affiliated with the Automobile Dealers of Indiana, and the Automobile Dealers Association of America.

FORSAKES SELLING FOR DRIVING—Glen Shively, 77, this week announced his retirement after 46 years in the auto business. The veteran car dealer plans to make an extended trip to California this winter, and intends to drive all the way!

Shocking Accident

Yesterday evening about 6 o'clock, Samuel S. Shively, at [illegible] and well known resident of Pipe Creek township, was going home with William Bowman, and when they were near the railroad bridge one wheel of the wagon dropped into a deep rut and Mr. Shively, who was sitting on the seat directly above the wheel, was pitched out, his head catching in the spokes and breaking his neck, causing instantaneous death. Help was procured at Wallick's mill and the body brought to Peru and taken to the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Jackson, to be prepared for the rites of interment. Immediately after the accident deputy coroner Scott was notified, who decided it would only be a useless expense to the county to hold an inquest. Mr. Shively was near seventy years of age, was the owner of considerable property, and was respected by all who knew him. He leaves quite a large family, all of whom are grown and in comfortable circumstances.

Alieniation Case from Bunker Hill Closes in Wabash Court.

A decision in favor of the defendants was rendered by a jury in the Wabash Circuit court last Thursday afternoon in the $15,000 alieniation suit of Charles G. Shaffer, of Bunker Hill, against Perry O. Shively and his wife, Helen C. Shively which was venued from the Miami Circuit court.

The jury reached a verdict within an hour after receiving the case. H. K. Cuthbertson, of this city, was chief counsel for the defendants and was assisted by Frank Plummer, of Wabash. The plaintiff was represented by Butler and Butler, of Peru.

The trial was begun Monday lasting five days. Shaffer and his wife became separated a year or two ago and afterward Shaffer brought suit for damages against Shively and his wife in the Miami Circuit court, alleging in his complaint that it was through the Shivelys he lost the affections of his wife. It came to us prepared, in due time, together with a fine lot of cake and a portion of the wedding turkey, but getting into the wrong pigeon hole was overlooked. We hope, however, it is not too late. The bride is a daughter of the late David R. 130.4.3.1.7

Death of Elder D. P. Shively.

ELDER DANIEL P. SHIVELY was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, Nov. 24, 1841; departed this life in the Pipe Creek church, Miami County, Ind., July 22, 1900, aged 58 years, 7 months and 28 days. He came with his parents to this county when eleven years old and was united in marriage to Harriet Little Jan. 28, 1864. He was elected to the deacon's office Oct. 14, 1871, and filled that official capacity until Sept. 18, 1873, when he was called to the ministry, and to the full ministry Nov. 4, 1889.

Four sons and one daughter, together with the grief-stricken widow, survive; all present at the funeral except the eldest son, who resides in Kansas.

In his death this church loses one of its ablest pillars. The loss will be keenly felt by the family, by the neighborhood and by the church; and not only by this church alone, but throughout all the Middle District of Indiana. In other states his counsel and advice was sought. At the time of his death he was presiding elder over four different churches.

Bro. Shively was highly esteemed among all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His Christian virtues were of high order and the church has lost one of her brightest lights and most ardent advocates which cannot soon be replaced.

Funeral services were held July 25 at the church where he had so often worshiped, conducted by Eld. A. L. Wright, assisted by Eld. I. D. Parker, to perhaps the largest assemblage that ever convened on such an occasion at this place; after which all that was mortal of our late beloved brother was peacefully laid to rest in the cemetery near the church.

A PROMINENT PERU BUSINESS MAN CALLED.

Death Occurs in Indianapolis Sanitarium After Illness of Several Months' Duration.

Nathan Loewenthal, the well known Peru clothing merchant, junior member of the firm of Hall & Loewenthal, died Wednesday evening in an Indianapolis sanitarium, where he had been receiving treatment for several months. The remains were brought to Peru on the 2:30 o'clock L. E. & W. passenger train Thursday afternoon and were taken to the family home at No. 177 West Third street, where the funeral was held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. The burial was in the Jewish part of Oak Grove cemetery.

Mr. Loewenthal was born in Germany forty-four years ago and at the age of nineteen years came to this country with his aunt, Mrs. Anna Oppenheimer, and worked for a time at Tipton, when he came to Peru and took a position as clerk in the Falk clothing store, where he continued until about twenty years ago, when he embarked in the clothing business with his surviving partner, Clarence N. Hall, in the room now occupied by J. T. Kaufman on South Broadway. This firm at once became popular and in a few years, larger quarters being needed, a change of location was made to the present quarters of the firm in the Brownell building opposite the court house on Broadway.

In the death of Mr. Loewenthal there has been ended the career of a very successful Peru business man and a very worthy and highly esteemed citizen. Always honest and upright in his dealings with his fellowmen he gained and held the friendship of many people who will deeply regret to learn of his demise.

On account of years of close application to business Mr. Loewenthal's health began to break about a year ago and soon afterward he was forced to retire from active business and seek treatment in a sanitarium. The last few months his condition was very serious, and although his friends had been given to understand that there were no hopes of his recovery, but the news of his demise came as a great shock to them.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Frelove Mills, wife of Joseph Mills, was born in Preble County, O., January 29, 1845. She was the daughter of Francis and Clarissa (Jaqua) Dodge. Her mother's people came from Pennsylvaniia and her father's people came from New York. The father, Francis Dodge, was a physician, and the mother died when Frelove was but a mere child.

In 1861 Miss Dodge was united in marriage to Joseph Mills of Preble County. Their life together covered a period of almost sixty years, he being eighty-two the 19th day of March.

To them were born six children as follows: George Francis deceased; William Clarence deceased; Charles E.; Miss Ella Florence; Marion Elbert; and Mrs. Elizabeth Walter.

They came to the present farm for permanent residence in 1868, where they carved from the primeval forest in pioneer days the home in which they lived until 1906 when they moved to Bunker Hill, then in October 1912 they returned to a new residence built on a portion of the farm overlooking the Pipe Creek valley. Here they lived until Mrs. Mill's death at 2 o'clock on the morning of March 17th. Her age was seventy-four years, one month and sixteen days.

During her sickness which covered many weeks, she bore her affliction with a remarkable fortitude for one of her strength and years. Her patience was as lasting as her hope for recovery.

Of her good qualities none was more conspicuous than that of her devotion to family and home ties. Not much given to society, she displayed a domestic spirit admired by relatives, friends and visitors alike, always manifesting genuine hospitality. A quiet, daily practice of the principles of her Christian belief, together with true motherly love, characterized the life of the love Melvina [illegible]

THE HOOSIER DEMOCRA

DIES ON FARM BOUGHT BY HER FATHER FROM GOVERNMENT IN 1836

Mrs. Honorah Hayes Minneman, wife of Henry Minneman, died at her home in Washington township, Carroll county, July 10, at 12 o'clock, death being due to blood poison. She had been in poor health since last Thanksgiving, being afflicted with Brights disease. Five weeks ago she took blood poison in her hand, which resulted in her death. She died on the farm where she was born 61 years ago, the farm having been purchased by her father, the late Lawrence Hayes from the government in 1836, when Andrew Jackson was president.

Mrs. Minneman was one of the pioneer school teachers of Carroll county, having taught several successful terms. On November 3, 1876, she was united in marriage to Henry Minneman. To this union six children were born, all of whom survive. Her life was characterized by unusual vigor and enthusiasm and her final illness was born by unusual fortitude and endurance. Her jovial, free hearted disposition made her many true friends for she always had cheerful words and genial smiles for her friends and acquaintances. She was a devoted member of the Catholic church. She leaves to mourn her death a husband, four sons, Richard, Harry, Lawrence, and George and two daughters, May and Alice. Also four sisters, Mrs. Michael Guckien, Mrs. Jas. Maloney, Mrs. G. H. Lynch and Mrs. James Hooley and two brothers, Richard and John Hayes, of Montana, besides a host of relatives and friends. The funeral was held Saturday from St. Vincent Church in Logansport, by Rev. Robert Halpin and burial was made in Mt. St. Vincent. It was one of the largest funerals ever held from that church.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

DANIEL BOWSER, one of the well-to-do farmers of Pipe Creek Township, was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, November 1, 1833, son of John and Susanna (Wyland) Bowser, natives of Ohio and of German extraction. Our subject's youth was passed amid the stirring scenes of farm life, with the rugged duties of which he early became familiar. He enjoyed such rude advantages for an education as were offered in those days. From the time of his father's death, which occurred in 1851, he was his mother's only support, caring for her until her second marriage, which took place in 1853. The family then moved to Goshen, Indiana. Mr. Bowser came to Pipe Creek Township in the winter of 1854, and purchased eighty acres of land. He has been twice married, the first time, in 1855, to Miss Mary Shively, daughter of Daniel and Catherine (Bowman) Shively. He chose for his second wife Hannah Shively, a sister of his former wife. They were married January 4, 1857, and are the parents of the following children: John E., born February 15, 1858; Susanna, born June 1, 1861; Levi, born April 20, 1865, and Mary E., born June 16, 1868. Mr. and Mrs. Bowser are members of the German Baptist Church, with which they have been united for thirty years. Mr. Bowser officiated as minister in the second degree of his church for fifteen years. In politics he acts with the Democratic party.

JACOB W. BRANDT, one of the early pioneers of Miami County, is a native of Pennsylvania, born October 2, 1820. His parents were Martin and Elizabeth (Weaver) Brandt, both natives of Pennsylvania, the former of German and the latter of English descent. Our subject remained with his parents, clerking in a store and securing in the meantime, a fair education, until twenty-one years old. He taught school some eight years, two of which he taught in Lewisburg, Cass County. In the spring of 1842, he and his father purchased a tract of land in Tipton Township. In 1845, he moved to Pipe Creek Township, where he traded for 148 acres of heavily timbered land, then considered the poorest part of the county, but now one of the best farms in the locality. October 16, 1845, he was united in marriage with Rachel A. Hiller, and by her is the father of five children, only three, Anamelia A. James E. and Catharine C., yet living. The mother died June 15, 1859. Mrs. Martha A. Britton, his second wife, to whom he was wedded October 6, 1859, was born August 17, 1827, in Guilford County, North Carolina. In 1846, she married Charles Britton, who was called away in 1857. By him she was the mother of four children, these

REV. THOS. SHIVELY MUCH BELOVED

Pipe Creek Church Pastor Dies at Dukes Hospital.

Rev. Thomas A. Shively, one of the best known and most beloved citizens of Miami county, pastor of Pipe Creek Church of the Brethren, west of Nead, passed to his Heavenly reward at Dukes hospital Tuesday morning at 5:15 o'clock. He had been a patient at the hospital since June 15, when he suffered a heart attack.

Monday morning he was the victim of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Rev. Shively was born in Pipe Creek township, Nov. 22, 1883, the son of Daniel P. and Harriet (Little) Shively. He was married Aug. 2, 1906 to Myrtle Fisher, who survives.

Surviving also are three sons, Ernest, Cherow, Colo., Roger, Indianapolis and Herbert, Route 3, Peru; seven grandchildren; one brother Charles S. Shively, Huntington, Pa., and one sister, Mrs. David Cripe, Peru.

He had spent his entire lifetime in Pipe Creek township. In addition to being pastor he was elder of the Pipe Creek Church of the Brethren and also held eldership in five other churches.

He became a minister in 1925 and was ordained to the eldership in 1926. For the past 30 years he was a trustee of Manchester college and served as one of its officers.

A graduate of Manchester Normal school and Manchester College, he had taught in many of the schools in the county. Since his retirement from teaching in 1952, he had served as substitute teacher.

He served as county superintendent of schools from 1925 to 1929, and was a former principal of the Clay township and Bunker Hill high school.

Funeral services were held in his Pipe Creek Church of the Brethren Thursday afternoon. Rev. Charles Oberlin, Rev. Milo Huffman and Rev. Walter Stinebaugh, officiated. Burial in the Metzger cemetery, the Eikenberry Funeral Home directing.

Married 65 Years, Record of Civil War Veteran, Wife

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED SHIVELY.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

PERU, Ind., January 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Shively, Wawpecong, south of Peru, recently celebrated their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. Shively is the only civil war veteran in Clay township, Miami county. Mr. and Mrs. Shively were married in the same place where they now live, and eight of their eleven children are still living. Mr. and Mrs. Shively are in good health. He is eighty-seven and she is seventy-nine.

July 10 - 1953

The attendance at the funeral services of the late Thomas A. Shively, beloved minister and school teacher, of Pipe Creek township, was so large at the Church of the Brethren, west of Nead, where he was pastor for many years, that hundreds of neighbors and friends could not get into the church. Those outside, however, did not miss any of the services as Cecil Clingaman, who has a public address system, installed it in the church and every word that was spoken during the service was plainly heard by those on the outside. The kindness of Mr. Clingaman who has an electrical appliance shop just below Park Avenue on West Main street, was very much appreciated.

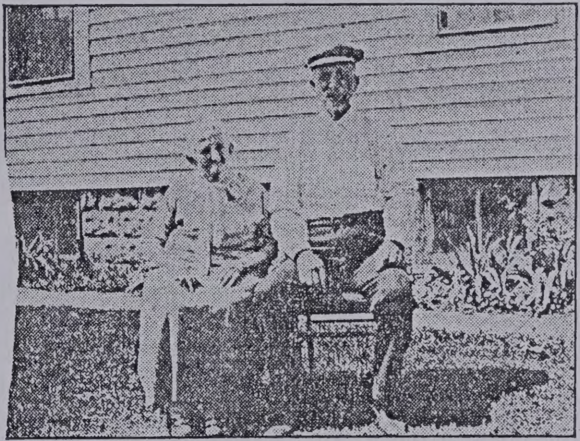
"Give and Take---Think Twice Before You Speak," Is Advice Of Couple Married 69 Years



MEET MR. AND MRS. ALFRED SHIVELY

(By K. T. Z.)

March 3, 1513, Ponce de Leon sailed from Porto Rico to search for the Fountain of Youth. The Indians had told him marvelous tales of becoming young and handsome again, if he would but bathe in its miraculous waters. Four hundred and twenty-two years have passed since then and to my knowledge, no one has found the Fountain of Youth.

How fortunate we are too—for what is sweeter than the road that we tread from infancy to old age. We have our memories—some are sad perhaps—some are gay—but they all fit together to make life worth while.

In the little village of Waupecong, I found an old couple that had lived there for many years. They were seated in their cozy little living room—these two that had traveled so far together—rocking and listening to their radio.

"Ma—turn off the radio—I can't hear," requested the old gentleman as he invited me in. Their hospitality was so genuine—so sincere—I felt as if they were old friends.

Mrs. Alfred Shively, 82 years old, sat in a little low rocker by the radio. Clad in a little lavender colored dress—her white hair neatly pinned back and her face wreathed in smiles, she promised to answer any questions that she was able to.

Her sight dimmed with age, she allowed that she still would be pretty active, if she could just see well enough to get around.

Mr. Shively, 90 years old, a tall well-built fellow, belied his age, for the years had dealt kindly with him. There was a sparkle in his eye as he chatted and his mind was keen and active.

Like two children, hand in hand they rambled across the years and recited incidents of their early life.

"Oh, yes—my wedding dress. Why—I can't hardly recollect. You see I was married 69 years ago last December 31st. Let's see—I guess it would be called drab color—made out of silk with a tiny stripe running through it. It had lots and lots of buttons to trim it up all fancy and a great full shirt. That was before the time of bustles."

"Good health? Yes indeed, we always have enjoyed good health," declared Mr. Shivley. "That's right," chimed in the wife, "except the time you had that terrible seige of typhoid, right after we were married. Remember, Pa," she appealed. "Then I broke my leg six years ago—that's why I have to use a cane now."

Mr. Shively was born in Ohio, but has spent most of his life in Indiana. Mrs. Shively was born in Pennsylvania but her folks came to Indiana when she was but 10 years old. They proudly told me of their family. Eleven children they had had—of which, six boys and one girl are still living. They have 26 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

"The winters bother me a lot more than they used too," declared Mrs. Shively.

"That's because you can't get around so good," chuckled the husband.

"We had real old-fashioned winters in our young days—many's the time I hauled logs all winter, from late fall until early spring—on a bed of snow that once it was on, just naturally stayed there until spring. I used two oxen then to haul logs—horses were used in later years."

Mr. and Mrs. Shively have lived in the same house in Waupecong for the past 54 years. Among the treasures of their early married life, is a chest of drawers, or bureau, as Mrs. Shively called it—which is more than 60 years old. Made of cherry wood, it has four deep drawers that open with huge wooden knobs. It truly is a relic of the past.

"What would be your advice to the young folks of today for a happy married life,"? I queried.

They both leaned forward expectantly, as if eager to reply. Mrs. Shively's face fairly beamed as she answered. "Well, I always said, that one has to give and take in marriage. You can either make a heaven or hell out of your home.

OBITUARY

Christian H. Shively, son of John E. and Elizabeth Shively, was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, on December 3, 1834, and died February 27, 1918, aged 83 years, 2 months and 24 days.

Mr. Shively was in his 16th year when he came with his parents to Pipe Creek township, Miami county, Indiana. The journey was made in the month of June, in a wagon, and required eight days for its completion. The family moved into a newly built log cabin and the struggle for a farm home in the forest was begun. Here midst the arduous duties incident to pioneer life our departed neighbor grew to manhood. He was an active participant in all of the labors that were imposed on those who would make a home in a heavily timbered country. Schools were of short duration and far a part. The hours of labor were from sun to sun and often before and after daylight.

Mr. Shively spent most of his boyhood days in the school of hard knocks.

When twenty one years of age he began life for himself on a sixty acre tract on Pipe Creek.

Nearly all timber but on the creek was a mill.

He operated this mill successfully 'til 1862 when he erected a steam saw mill and the old water mill was "at rest"

The event of his life occurred on October 16th 1864.

It was then be joined fortunes with Sarah C. Garnand as his life partner. She was called into the unseen on the twenty-eight of December 1912. To Mr. Shively were born four sons and ~~two daughters. The~~ four sons, Carl, Perry O., John E., Glen E., with one sister Mrs Ida M. Hopper survive thei father.

Mr. Shively's father being a minster o German Baptist, now Brethren Church his son Christian imbibed early home life and became a devoted member of the same religious order of this church and was a liberal and active supporter.

Of a family of five boys and four girls he was the sixth one to go in the spirit world. One brother Henry Shively two sisters, Mrs David Daily. Mrs. Samuel Shepler survive their brother departed.

The founder of the Shively family in America, left his home in Switzerland 200 years ago, on account of religious persecution and came to the U. S.

The family is a large one and widely scattered. In the departure of Mr. Shively the community, the township, and the county, loses a well known citizen, a sucessful farmer and one of its sturdy sons of toil.

But the influence of an active life of fifty seven years in our midst will remain while he rests from his labors his works will follow him.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Pipe Creek Brethern Church by Irvin Fisher of Mexico and burial took place in cemetery near by.

Many times before her death she expressed her readiness for death. Her words were "Let the Lord's will be done, that is always best."

OBITUARY

md Glenn E. Shively

Celia Victoria, daughter of Oliver L. and Emma Edwards Hiatt, was born at Economy near Richmond Indiana, January 24, 1884. After a dutiful and happy childhood and maidenhood, she was married to Glen E. Shively Sept. 27, 1905. She was converted in a Friends meeting at the early age of 7 years, since which time she has been a faithful believer in Christ and supporter of His cause. Her sufferings which finally ended in death extended over a period of five years, in all of which she was patient and cheerful. Death came to her releif, Feb. 22, 1913, in the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis, immediately after a surgical operation, which it was hoped would result in her recovery. She leaves behind, her husband and two bright and beautiful children, Margaret, aged four years and baby Ellis aged four months. Also her father and a kind step-mother, one sister, Mrs. Rebecca Chamness of Richmond and one brother, Lawrence T. Hiatt of Fountain City. Her mother passed on before, July 19, 1898, when Celia was fourteen years of age, thus she ~~herself knew that~~ mother care which she was so desirous to bestow on her own children.

Being the youngest of the family and the only child unmarried, there grew up between father and daughter a special affection and mutfial dependence. After quitting school at 16 she became her father's housekeeper wherein she developed many of the traits of her mother. The last thing she said before passing under the anisthetic at the hospital was, "Tell papa if I don't get well it is alright with me."

Her age at the time of her death was twenty nine years and twenty eight days.

Mrs. Shively was one of the most highly respected women of the community. She was pious, affable, kind and generous. These qualities connected with her attractive personality and more than average intellectuality, made her an admirable neighbor and desirable friend. She was orderly, painstaking and industrious as a housewife. To her husband she returned in full, yea, with large percent, the loyal measure of consideration, love and devotion bestowed upon her. Motherhood is the greatest power and noblest bequest bestowed upon humanity; this Mrs. Shively glorified by her maternal joy and affections, without worshipping her children, she bestowed upon them in lavish degree the true mother love. Judged from the human point of view, she had much for which to live, among the chief of which was to bring up her children in piety and nobility. It seems a pity that the little ones are left without a mother's care; but the God of the mother, will be the God of the motherless. As we look into their baby faces, let it be with the thought, "God will take care of you." He who marks the sparrow's fall makes no mistakes in the care of those who trust Him.

The loved one is at rest,
 Her trials are o'er,
Her soul is among the blest,
 On the farther shore.

What a beautiful, beautiful flower of hope is this which blooms in the hearts of those who, like the departed, trust in the merits of the Christ.

The funeral service was held in the Baptist church at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. C. M. Shawley, the minister who performed the marriage ceremony at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Shively, assisted by Rev. J. M. Kendall, pastor of the church. The body was buried in a cement vault in Springdale cemetery.

Feb. 21 SCHMIDT. 1907

Mrs. Philippine Schmidt, wife of Henry Schmidt, of the Hamaker drug store, living at No. 330 West Third street, died Wednesday morning at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schrader, No. 330 East Third street, where she had been for several weeks. The deceased, who was thirty-one years of age, had been ill for some time with a complication of diseases. The funeral was conducted from the Lutheran church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the burial was in the Lutheran cemetery. DEATH COMES VERY SUDDENLY

To Henry L. Shively, One of Miami County's Pioneer Citizens —Is Found by Son in Dying Condition.

On Saturday morning the very large circle of friends and acquaintances of Henry L. Shively, one of Miami county's best-known pioneer citizens, were shocked to hear of his sudden death at his home on the western line of Washington township. Mr. Shively was in Peru nearly all day Friday and met and talked to many of his friends, transacted business and went to his home in apparently the best of health and to those with whom he came in contact that day the news of his death was an even greater shock.

The facts preceding the sad affair as related to The Sentinel are that Mr. Shively did not retire until some time after midnight, which is testified to by his son, Fred A. Shively, who, with his wife, has been living with the deceased for several years. Some time after retirement the son and his wife were aroused from deep sleep by the howling of their small dog and then they heard groans emanating from somewhere in the house. An immediate investigation resulted in the finding of Mr. Shively in the cellar, in an unconscious state, lying on his back with his feet to the lower step and his head resting in a pool of blood on the cement floor. It was apparent that he had fallen down the cellar stairs, but what caused him to arise from his bed and walk to the head of the stairs is the only unexplained feature of the affair.

Dr. M. L. Wagner of Peru was immediately called by phone and the nearest neighbors aroused and all that was possible was done to save the life of the injured man, but it availed nothing, and he passed away about 3:15 o'clock, approximately forty-five minutes after his body was discovered, without regaining consciousness to explain the manner in which he met with the acicdent. A theory expressed by Ford Wallick, a son-in-law of the deceased, is that after retiring he did not go to sleep immediately and conceived the idea that perhaps he had not properly fastened the doors or had overlooked some other detail of his nightly routine, and arose from his bed to see after it, and in doing it accidentally fell down the cellar stairs. It was particularly noticed that there was nothing at the head of the stairs for him to stumble over and cause the accident. Dr. Wagner stated that he might have suffered a stroke of apoplexy when at the head of the stairs, thus causing him to fall, and this is said to be borne out by the examination disclose no broken bones and the blow on the back of the head being hardly enough to cause death. A gash about an inch and a half long was cut in the back of the head, which bled very freely, and blood was flowing from the ears of the injured man. Just what was the immediate cause of death could only be determined perhaps by an autopsy. After death the Fetter-Allen Undertaking establishment was called and the body prepared for burial.

The funeral services were held at the late home of the deceased at 2:80 o'clock Monday afternoon, in charge of Rev. Beckett of Galveston and interment took place in Sharpee cemetery (formerly known as Mt. Hope) on the hill opposite the Wabash pumping station, alongside the remains of his wife, who departed this life about ten years ago.

The services at the graveside were in charge of Peru Lodge No. 52, I. O. O. F., and Peru Encampment of the Patriarchs Militant, both of which orders the deceased was a member.

Beautiful vocal music was rendered at the services by a quartette composed of Mrs. L. E. Ager, Miss Georgia Cockley, Harry L. Miller and Chester Cunningham

A coincidence of this death is that this was the third sudden death in the family, the wife passing away with scarcely any previous warning and a son, Charles Shively, meeting death at the crossing of the L. E. & W. railroad at the Brownell (now the Ariel) factory about seven years ago.

The deceased was a son of John E. and Elizabeth Shively and was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, on April 9, 1851, and was seventy years, two months and nine days of age when death came. He was brought to Miami county by his parents when only seven weeks old and the family settled on a farm across the road in Pipe Creek township, opposite the present family home, and all of his life was spent there, following the career of a tiller of the soil. Three children survive, Mrs. Dora May Wallick, wife of Ford Wallick of the American Stationery Co., who resides in Peru; Mrs. Rosa Bell Sutton, wife of David O. Sutton, who lives in Clay township, this county, and Frederick A. Shively, who with his wife resides in the beautiful home in Washington township. Of the pioneer father's family there is but one survivor, a sister, Mrs. Hannah Shepler.

Thus has passed another of those brave pioneers whose life was given over to the making of this country what it is today, a land of milk and honey and of opportunity for everyone who has enough foresight and industry to profit by the blazing of the way for them by the early conquerors of the wilderness, for that was what most of Miami county was when Henry Shively and his contemporaries began clearing the forest and planting the crops that are now feeding a great portion of the world. How little the most of us appreciate the enormous labor and the great sacrifices of those men and women.

A divorce was granted to Martha E. Shively from Henry L. Shively Thursday afternoon. They were married October 11, 1913, and lived together until December 7, 1914. The former name of the plaintiff, Martha A. Surface, was restored. The property rights were adjusted outside of court. An ante-nuptial agreement made October 17, 1913, was cancelled and annulled. The defendant is a prominent Pipe Creek township farmer. The complaint charged cruel and inhuman treatment, vile and vulgar language, and stated that the defendant showed no love or affection for her.

Miami county is the birthplace

Over two thousand scientist who were educated in Hoosie

The smaller cities and town are more productive of scientist

Visher finds. This, he believe is due to the relative concentra ambitious persons, who becom the parents of leaders.

"Men and women of distinc

were students of David Star

Among his ancestors the Wilcox, Clore and Boone families were among the first settlers of the Blue Grass state. Before the war Mr. Wilcox was the owner of a number of slaves, was a well and favorably known planter and an upright man. Both the parents were Missionary Baptists in their religious faith. Politically, Mr. Wilcox was a Democrat, conservative and deliberate, and he filled some of the township offices. His children were Sallie B., who is now Mrs. T. B. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Smith are Frank W., Daisy B. and James L. The parents are consistent members of the Missionary Baptist church, of which Mr. Smith is a trustee and deacon.~~

C433.2 130.4.3.3.2

CHRISTIAN H. SHIVELY is one of the respected farmers and old settlers of Pipe Creek township, Miami county, Indiana. He was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, December 3, 1834, son of John E. and Elizabeth (Shively) Shively.

John E. Shively was a native of Pennsylvania, born in Lancaster county, December 5, 1804, and when one and a half years old was taken by his parents to Montgomery county, Ohio, their settlement being in Jefferson township, four miles west of Dayton, where he was reared on a frontier farm. His brothers and sisters were Daniel, David, Christian, and Susan, who became the wife of John Metzger. His parents spent the greater part of their lives in Montgomery county, his father dying there. His mother died in Clinton county, Indiana, at the ripe old age of ninety-two years. They and their family were members of the German Baptist church. The founder of the Shively family in America came to this country from Switzerland, on account of religious persecutions, about 1718 or 1719, and settled in Pennsylvania. John E. Shively was married, August 25, 1832, in Montgomery county, to Elizabeth Shively, who was born December, 1811, in that county, daughter of David and Hannah (Cripe) Shively, her grandfather being Elder Jacob Cripe. David Shively and Hannah, his wife, were the parents of Samuel, Elizabeth and David R. John E. Shively and wife settled on the old Daniel Shively homestead in Jefferson township, Montgomery county, where they resided until the spring of 1851. In May of that year they made the journey by team to Indiana, being eight days on the road and landing in Pipe Creek township, Miami county, June 1st. Here he settled on one hundred and sixty acres of land, upon which a little log cabin had been built and where two acres were cleared. In this typical pioneer home, with the dense forest all around him and with neighbors few and far apart, he began the work of clearing and cultivating. With the passing years he prospered, acquiring and improving other lands, and gave to all his children a good home. He died in 1877 at the age of seventy-three years and eleven months. It was by his own honest and persistent toil and with the aid of his good wife that his success in life was attained. He was a man of deep piety, and was a minister and for many years an elder in the German Baptist church, being one of the founders of the Pipe Creek church. His children in order of birth are as follows: David, born November 11, 1833; Christian H., December 3, 1834; Susannah, March 11, 1838; Elizabeth, December 27, 1839; Mary, May 7, 184–; Hannah, April 7, 1844; John, October 16, 1848; Henry, April 9, 1851; and Joseph, March 15, 1854. 130.4.3.3.2

Christian H. Shively was about sixteen years old when, in 1851, he accompanied his parents on their removal to Miami county, Indiana. He remained a member of the home circle until he reached his majority and then, receiving from his father sixty acres of land, he started out in life on his own account. His land, located on Pipe creek, was then all covered with forest, but on it was a sawmill. This mill he ran until 1862, doing a good business, and at the end of that time he built a new mill, operated by steam power. After running the new mill eight years he sold out and turned his attention to farming exclusively, to which he has since devoted his energies. To his original sixty acres he has since added from time to time as he has been prospered until now his farm comprises three hundred and ninety acres, all fine farming land and under a high state of cultivation,— one of the best places in the township.

Mr. Shively was married in this township, October 16, 1864, to Miss Sarah C. Garnand, who was born in Frederick county, Maryland, March 15, 1844, daughter of Joel and Mary (Loody) Garnand. The Garnands are of German origin. Joel Garnand came from Maryland to Indiana in 1863, and on December 31 purchased two hundred and forty acres of partly improved land, in two tracts, which he farmed until 1890, when he retired and moved to Bunker Hill. There he died at the age of seventy-six years. His children are Jacob, Lewis, Sarah C., Maggie, Clara, James, Cassandra, Charity, Alice, David F. and Ida. Mr. and Mrs. Shively became the parents of the following named children: Ida May, born December 29, 1865; Ira Carl, November 16, 1870; Laura, April 8, 1872; Perry O., August 22, 1874; John E. H., June 23, 1877; and Glenny G., September 26, 1882. All are living except Laura, who died at the age of twelve years.

Both Mr. Shively and his wife are devout members of the German Baptist church and are among its most active and liberal supporters.

LeRoy A. Shively. The career of Mr. Shively, now probably the best known and the ablest auctioneer in Miami county, has many points of interest. He is a native of Miami county, who in his young manhood left his home surroundings and began his practical adventures in the west. After a number of years of more or less successful enterprises in western states, he returned to his old county, and now for twenty years has been actively identified with the farming and general business affairs of this locality. Mr. Shively was born on a farm in Pipe Creek township on July 26, 1869.

His father was the late Daniel P. Shively, whose career and character are worthy of long remembrance in the community which was his home for so many years, and to which he contributed so many uplifting and substantial influences. Daniel P. Shively was born near Dayton, Ohio, was reared on a farm in the discipline of hard work and when a boy received only limited educational advantages. As he grew up he began to appreciate his lack of schooling, and at every opportunity that was offered he studied and read with consuming ardor the most instructive literature. His family were strong in the faith of the German-Baptist church and he was reared in that faith. In his community in Miami county he came in time to exercise the influence of one of the leading citizens, and with his intense energy and religious zeal almost naturally took a place as local preacher among the adherents of his own faith. He was known as a keen reasoner, a profound student of the bible, and in every relation of life his influence was for morality and practical good. His death occurred in July, 1900. An immense concourse of sorrowing friends followed his body to its last resting place, and on that day were paid many heartfelt tributes to his noble nature and the many worthy deeds of his lifetime.

LeRoy A. Shively spent his boyhood in the old community of Pipe Creek township. He attended the district school which was nearest the old home and trained his body by the vigorous work of the farm and the sports and diversions which country boys usually follow. When twenty years of age he started out for himself and chose the west as a field for his early enterprise. He was in Kansas and Colorado for some time. Among the work which he did in Kansas was as engineer for the Great Bend Milling Company. His experience in running an engine was practically nothing, but the company wanted an engineer, and he wanted work, so they arranged matters to their mutual satisfaction. He continued in his place as engineer for about eighteen months, and when he left it was on his own volition and not because the company requested it. During the following year he was engaged in carpentering ing and contracting, and for two years was engaged in prospecting and work in the mines at Galena, Kansas.

On returning to Miami county in 1893, Mr. Shively established himself on a farm and began the breeding of Hereford cattle, an enterprise which he continued for six years. Selling out, he then associated himself with the late Col. Allie Powell in live stock auctioneering. During three years of this association he made his home at Wabash. After the death of Col. Powell in 1906, Mr. Shively continued his vocation as auctioneer on his own responsibility, and has had a large business in that calling. For three years he was engaged in the management of the farm known as the Jerry Hardwick farm for the Shirk estate.

Mr. Shively is in politics a Democrat, and a good citizen without participating in practical party affairs. On August 2, 1899, he married Miss Carrie B. Jacobs, of Pipe Creek township. Their two children are Ralph D. and Dorris E. Mrs. Shively is a member of the Methodist church.

Edward L. Miller. Much of the business life of Edward L. Miller has been passed in Peru, and during the years of his residence here he has been prominently concerned with some of the telling enterprises [illegible] and [illegible]. William W. served in the [illegible] of the [illegible] Volunteer Infantry, enlisting in the spring for three years, and died the next fall of typhoid fever, at Atlanta, Georgia, when but seventeen years of age. His remains were brought home for interment. Mr. Nation, the father of the aforementioned children, is [illegible] [illegible] pioneer of sterling worth. He is a member of the Christian church and a Republican.

In February, 1867, the subject of this sketch emigrated to Howard county, locating upon his present place March 12, where he had bought eighty acres of wooded land. Assisted by his faithful wife, he succeeded in clearing this tract and in making a good farm and a pleasant home. His first habitation here was a round-log house, which had been erected by the former occupant, Seth Nation; but the land had been entered by a man named Clark. Mr. Grose is a member of the Christian church, and in politics is a Republican, but he has never been an office-seeker, though he has served as county supervisor for several years. He has demonstrated his unflinching patriotism by enlisting in the war for the Union, in Henry county, as a private for three months; but his company, which was to be assigned to the Thirty-sixth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, of which his uncle, William Grose, was colonel, was not accepted.

DAVID R. SHIVELY, one of the most venerable citizens of Bunker Hill, Indiana, and a respected pioneer of Miami county and of Pipe Creek township, is of the sturdy Pennsylvania Dutch stock. His first American ancestors were from Switzerland, being two brothers. The name was then spelled Shiveley. They were among German Baptists who emigrated to the Keystone state between 1708 and 1729, on the establishment of the Pennsylvania government, to escape religious persecution.

John Shively, the grandfather of David R., was a native of Pennsylvania, in which state he married Miss Susanna Cripe, and their children were David, Christian, John, Jacob, Susanna and Elizabeth. John Shively was a pioneer farmer of Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, and was a resident there during the Indian troubles, when he was obliged to leave his home for three years and take shelter in a safe place. In religion he was a German Baptist. Later he emigrated to Montgomery county, Ohio, where it is believed he settled as early as 1806, entered land and cleared and cultivated a portion of it, making a good tillable farm. He was one of the earliest pioneers of that county and a highly respected citizen. He was an elder in the German Baptist church. He could have bought the land where the court-house in Dayton now stands for ten pounds of butter. His son, David Shively, the father of our subject, was born in Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in 1787, and was taken to Montgomery county, Ohio, by his parents when a boy. They came down the Ohio on a flat-boat from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. After he grew up he was married, in Montgomery county, to Hannah Cripe, also a native of the Keystone state and a daughter of Jacob Cripe. His children were Jacob, Daniel, Barbara, Hannah, Esther and Elizabeth. Elder Cripe was a pioneer of Montgomery county, Ohio, where he cleared a tract of land and reduced it to cultivation and was a prosperous farmer. David Shively settled on land which his father had entered six miles west of Dayton, between Liberty and Wolf creek, and about two and a half miles from the present Soldiers' Home. Here he cleared land and developed a farm of about one hundred and ten acres, to which he added by later purchase until he had one hundred and sixty acres, all of which was fine farm land. He gave eighty acres to each of his children—Elizabeth, Samuel and David R. He emigrated to Pipe Creek township, Miami county, Indiana, in 1853, buying eighty acres of land and clearing it, and here he died, about the age of eighty years, a sincere member of the German Baptist church.

David R. Shively, whose name heads this sketch, was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, December 13, 1820, received a limited common-school education and was married in his native county in October, 1843, to Annie Haines, who was born in 1826, in Pennsylvania, the daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth (Myers) Haines. Her father was of sturdy Pennsylvania Dutch stock, and also German Baptist, a man of strict principles and consistent conduct. By his first wife his children were: Isaac, George and Samuel. The mother of these children died and subsequently Mr. Haines was united in marriage with Elizabeth Myers, and the children by this union were: Annie, Michael, Catharine, Samuel, Stephen, Rudy and Jesse.

After marriage Mr. Shively located first in Montgomery county, Ohio, on a tract of eighty acres of land which his father had given him and lived there four years, when he moved to Germantown Pike and was a resident there also for four years. Here he had a fine farm of one hundred and twenty-eight acres a half mile from the Soldiers' Home, which he ultimately sold in 1854, for five thousand five hundred dollars. Moving to Pipe Creek township, Miami county, Indiana, he purchased two hundred and twenty acres of land, mostly in timber, and cleared it, bringing out a good farm. For ten years he also owned and ran a gristmill on Big Pipe creek. By his never failing industry and concentration of energies and active judgment, he at length had for himself a splendid home, was prosperous in all his business and an influential citizen. By his first wife his children were John and Elizabeth.

Mrs. Shively died October 9, 1864, having always enjoyed a reputation for industry and the accomplishments of a good house-wife, and she was a devoted member of the German Baptist church. By his second marriage, February 3, 1867, at Arcadia, Hamilton county, Indiana, Mr. Shively was united with Mrs. Fanny S. Murray, whose maiden name was Correll and who was born January 14, 1828, in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, a daughter of John and Elizabeth (Stouffer) Correll. Her father was of French and German ancestry and a son of David and Susan (Hess) Correll. John Correll also was a native of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, was a distiller by trade and a farmer. His children was Christopher, Fannie, Elizabeth, John, Susanna, Annie, Catharine, Mary, Sarah, Barbara, Joseph, Jacob and Andrew. Mr. John Correll moved to Indiana in 1838, locating in Wayne county, and after a residence there of five years removed to Hamilton county, also in this state, settling upon one hundred and forty acres of land, where he made a farm in the forest and established a good home for his children. His days were ended in Hamilton county, where he died, December 4, 1885, at the venerable age of eighty-five years, having been born June 29, 1800. He was a member of the Mennonite church and was much respected. He brought up his children in good habits and was himself a very exemplary citizen. Mrs. Shively was about ten years of age when she came in 1838 and joined her parents in Hamilton county, and at the age of seventeen was married to John Murray, who was born November 13, 1818, in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, and was a farmer by occupation. Their children were Elizabeth, Barbara, Mary, Christopher, Catharine, Annie, Daniel and John. Mr. and Mrs. Murray located in Hamilton county, this state, where he finally died, at the age of forty-one years. He was of Pennsylvania Dutch stock and an industrious, straightforward man.

After marriage Mr. and Mrs. Shively settled upon the Shively homestead in Pipe Creek township, and in 1876 removed to Bunker Hill, where they have a pleasant residence, with about twenty acres in a high state of cultivation. On this plat they have planted all kinds of fine fruit trees that can be successfully cultivated in this latitude, besides many ornamental trees; this very comfortable home they richly deserve in return for their many long years of ardous labor.

They are members of the German Baptist church, and politically Mr. Shively votes with the Democratic party. Concerning all the subjects of the foregoing sketch in general we can quote with hearty indorsement the language of Daniel Webster: "Real goodness does not attach itself merely to this life: it points to another world. Political and professional reputation cannot last forever; but a conscience void of offence before God and man is an inheritance for eternity."

DAVID H. CAIN, for several years past a resident of Miami, Indiana, belongs to one of the pioneer families of this state, he having come here with his parents when a boy and settled on a frontier farm.

He was born in Rockingham county, Virginia, April 21, 1824, son of Cornelius and Ann (Kiblinger) Cain. Cornelius Cain along the agnatic line traced his ancestry to the Emerald isle, while from his mother's people he inherited English blood. His father, also named Cornelius, was an officer in the Revolutionary war. After the war he received a grant of government land, about one thousand acres in extent, at the place where Marietta, Ohio, is now located. It is believed, however, that he never obtained possession of the same. He settled in Rockingham county, Virginia, where he passed his life and where he died at a venerable age. His children were John, James, Washington, David, Hyett, William, Ruth, Mary and Cornelius. Cornelius Cain was born in Rockingham county in 1798, was there reared and in that county was married to Ann Kiblinger, who was born there, daughter of Peter Kib-

SICK MAN ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

Ties Noose To-Rafter And Steps Into Eternity. ~~1924~~ 1926

The neighbors and friends of Ephraim C. Miller, well known and respected farmer of Washington township, living four miles south of this city on what is known as the east Bunker Hills road were greatly shocked last evening on receipt of the news that he had committed suicide by hanging himself. It was about 4:30 o'clock when Mrs. Miller and son Sherman Miller, who had been gathering pumpkins in a field returned to the barn lot with the wagon. While the son was unhitching the horses, Mrs. Miller started to the house and glancing through the open doors of the driveway between the corn cribs, was stricken with horror when she saw her husband dangling from the end of a rope one end of which had been tied to an overhead beam.

Startled by the screams of his mother the son hastened to where she was and immediately ascended a step ladder from which his father had stepped into eternity and placing one arm around the body cut the rope with his free hand and gently lowered it to the ground. Although the body was still warm the son soon became convinced that life was extinct and telephoned for the sheriff, coroner and undertaker, Harry M. Allen.

Neck Not Broken

Upon investigation Coroner Worrell found that the neck had not been broken, death being caused by strangulation. Despondency over continued ill health is thought to have prompted the man to take his own life. Mr. Miller had been in ill health for four years and for the last three years had been in a palsied condition, not being able to look after his farm work.

The deceased was the son of Daniel and Isabelle (Cook) Miller and was born in Miami county, October 6, 1863, his age being 63 years and 21 days. November 10, 1898 he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Shepler who survives. Surviving besides the widow are three children who are Sherman Miller at home, Mrs. Esther Kintner of Chicago and Mrs. Gladys Vanator of Peru. He is also survived by two brothers and one sister, William H. Miller, Francis Miller and Mrs. Elizabeth Wolf, all living in Washington township.

The funeral will be held from the residence at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon and the service will be conducted by Rev. Thomas A. Shively, county superintendent of schools. Interment will be made in the Sharpe cemetery in Washington township.

two childden died when about seventeen years of age. For his second wife Mr. Gross married Christina Peterson, who was born in Holstein, Germany, and by whom he has two children, Robert and William. The children have all been given good educational advantages and are well fitted for life's responsible duties.

In 1879 he became identified with James A. Hawkins in the manufacture of brick and tile at Atwood, a business which they carried on quite successfully under the firm name of Hawkes & Gross until 1893, since which time our subject has given his attention principally to his farming interests. In his political views he is a stalwart Republican and is one of the standard bearers of his party in Piatt county. He has served as a member of the board of education in Atwood, as trustee of the Mutual Telephone Company of the place, and trustee of the cemetery there. He has also been vice president of the Farmer's Institute of Unity township, and is a man of prominence and influence in the community where he resides. He is a member of the County Fair Association and in this connection has done much to advance the interests of this section of the state. Religiously, Mr. Gross is a member of the German Evangelical church at Garrett, Douglas county, and he is a man who commands the respect and confidence of all with whom he is brought in contact either in business or social life.

STEPHEN SHIVELY.

Piatt county is very rich in its agricultural opportunities. Throughout the length and breadth of this land there can be found no district of soil more productive or which is better adapted to the production of grain which is the basis of all business prosperity. More than a century ago George Washington said "Agriculture is the most useful as well as the most honorable occupation of man," and the truth of this statement has been verified throughout the ages. It is to this work that Stephen Shively has devoted his energies through an active and honorable business career, and now he is living a retired life. He has made his home in this section of Illinois for over forty-five years, having settled in Oakley township, Macon county, Illinois, near Cerro Gordo, in 1858.

A native of Ohio, Mr. Shively was born in Montgomery county on the 28th of December, 1828, and is a son of Jacob and Susannah (Metzger) Shively, the former a native of Ohio and the latter of Pennsylvania. The father was reared in Ohio and there lived until 1836, at which time he removed to Clinton county, Indiana, where he carried on farming until his life's labors were ended in death. His wife also passed away in that county. They were the parents of three children: Stephen; Andrew, who married Barbara Metzger and is living in California; and Mary, who is the widow of John W. Metzger, and makes her home with her children.

Stephen Shively was quite young when he accompanied his parents on their removal to Clinton county, Indiana, and there he obtained his education in the public schools. He also assisted his father in the work of the home farm until his marriage, which important event in his life occurred in the year 1850, the lady of his choice being Miss Catherine Metzger. She, too, was born in Ohio, her birth occurring on the 4th of November, 1832, near the place of the nativity of our subject. She is a daughter of John and Hanna (Ullery) Metzger, the former a native of Pennsylvania and the latter of Ohio. Her father was an agriculturist, following that pursuit in the east until 1859, when he came to Piatt county, Illinois, and settled on a farm in Cerro Gordo towship. Later he went to California, but soon returned to Illinois and lived retired in Cerro Gordo until his death, which occurred in 1896. His wife passed away in 1887.

After his marriage Mr. Shively began farming in Clinton county, Indiana, where he carried on agricultural pursuits for eight years. On the expiration of that period he came to Illinois, establishing his home in Oakley township, Macon county, where he purchased a tract of land and at once began its development and improvement. There he carried on general farming with creditable and gratifying success from 1858 until 1881, when he removed to the village of Cerro Gordo, wherehe has since lived a retired life. In his farm work he was progressive and enterprising, steadily advancing along all lines which have proven of value in the work of cultivating the fields and producing excellent crops.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Shively has been blessed with five children: John J., who married Miss L. Blickenstaff and is now a resident farmer of Cerro Gordo township; Solomon, who married Mary Yont, and is engaged in carpentering in Ramsey, Illinois; Susannah, who is the wife of Amos Ratsman, and resides on the old homestead in Oakley township, Macon county; Hannah, who is the wife of John Cripe, a farmer of Macon county, Illinois; and Jacob, who died in 1862, at the age of two years. The parents are members of the German Baptist Brethren church of Cerro Gordo, and have lived earnest Christian lives in harmony with their professions. In political views Mr. Shively has always been a Republican and has held a number of minor offices. During his long residence in this section of the state he has witnessed almost its entire development and improvement, and his interest in its welfare has been indicated by the co-operation which he has given to movements for the general good. He is thoroughly genuine, there being not the slightest suggestion of anything hypocritical about him. With him friendship is inviolable, his word is as good as his bond, and he clings with unyielding firmness to a position which careful considation and mature judgment has convinced him to be right.

ALONZO T. PIPHER.

The profession of law when clothed with its true dignity, purity and strength must rank first among the callings of men, for law rules the universe. The work of the legal profession is to formulate, to harmonize, to regulate, to adjust, to administer those rules and principles that underlie and permeate all government and society and control the varied relations of men. As thus viewed there is attached to the profession nobleness that cannot but be reflected in the life of the true lawyer, who, rising to the responsibilities of the profession, and honest in the pursuit of his purpose, embraces the richness of learning, the firmness of integrity and the purity of morals, together with the graces

JOHN J. SHIVELY

SHIVELY, John J. Although his active life was spent in Macon County, the laté John J. Shively, after his retirement from agricultural labors, moved to Cerro Gordo, where he spent his last years, so he properly belongs to the list of substantial men of Piatt County. He was born in Clinton County, Ind., May 21, 1853, a son of Stephen and Catherine (Metzger) Shively, born near Dayton, Ohio. They were married in Indiana, and located on a farm, later becoming early settlers of Macon County, Ill. Subsequently they moved to Piatt County, and spent their declining years at Cerro Gordo, where they died.

The educational training of John J. Shively was obtained in the common schools. He was taught farming in all its branches, and for many years was a prosperous farmer of Oakley Township, Macon County, operating a farm of 160 acres still owned by his widow. In 1908 he retired, moving to Cerro Gordo, where he bought a handsome residence, and in it he died March 14, 1908.

On May 10, 1874, Mr. Shively was married to Leah Blickenstaff, born in Clinton County, Ind., August 13, 1851, a daughter of Leonard and Catherine (Ulery) Blickenstaff, born in Ohio, who came to Macon County, Ill., in 1855. Mrs. Blickenstaff died in 1866, while Mr. Blickenstaff died a few years later. Mr. and Mrs. Shively became the parents of the following children: Cora, who lives with her mother; and Levi, who resides at Chicago, married Gertrude Whisler, and they have one son, Willard. Levi Shively has taken an advanced course in mathematics at the University of Chicago, from which he will be graduated in 1917. He intends to make teaching his life work.

In religious faith Mr. Shively belonged to the Church of the Brethren, in which the entire family hold membership. His political views made him a Republican, and he gave an earnest and conscious support to the principles and candidates of that party. Hard working, intelligent and thrifty, Mr. Shively was successful and made his mark upon his community.

who shares in the high regard of all with whom she comes in contact. She has a comfortable residence in Monticello, where she is now living, and she has seventeen grandchildren, who take great delight in visiting their grandmother. Of the Methodist Episcopal church she is an acceptable member and her life has ever been in consistent harmony with its teachings and faith. To this church Mr. Royse belonged and was one of its liberal contributors, took an active interest in its work and thus did what he could to advance its growth and welfare. He died in its faith in 1900, and, passing away, he left to his family not only a handsome competence, but also an untarnished record, for his life was ever honorable and those who knew him entertained for him the highest confidence.

J. M, SHIVELY.

The world instinctively pays deference to the man whose success has been worthily achieved, who has overcome the obstacles in his path and has reached a creditable position in the business world. This is a progressive age and he who does not continually advance is soon left behind. By the improvement of opportunities by which all are surrounded, J. M. Shively has steadily and honorably worked his way upward and is to-day one of the prosperous business men of Cerro Gordo, where he is connected with the grain trade as a member of the firm of J. M. Shively & Company. He represents an old and prominent family of the county. He was born in Indiana in 1860, a son of Andrew and Barbara (Metzger) Shively, the former of Montgomery county, Ohio, and the latter of Clinton county, Indiana. Andrew Shively went to Indiana in his youth, locating first in Clinton county, where he carried on agricultural pursuits until 1872. He then came to Piatt county and purchased a tract of land in Cerro Gordo township, where he carried on general farming with success until 1887. His well directed efforts, his sound business judgement and his indefatigable industry brought to him capital sufficient to enable him to put aside business cares and after removing to Cerro Gordo he lived retired here for a few years. Wishing, however, to enjoy the balmy climate of California, he removed to Lordsburg, that state, where he is still living, resting in the enjoyment of the fruits of his former toil. His wife passed away in Cerro Gordo in 1895. They were the parents of three children: Susan, who is now the wife of Isaac Metzger, a resident of Cerro Gordo; John M., our subject; and Joseph, who resides upon a farm in Cerro Gordo township.

To the public school system of this county J. M. Shively is indebted for the educational privileges he enjoyed. After putting aside his text books he began farming in Cerro Gordo township and was thus employed until 1887, when he took up his abode in the town and turned his attention to the grain business. The grain elevator which he owns is the largest here. It was built in 1886 by Mr. Shellabaer, who operated it until May, 1889, and then sold to E. R. Ulrich & Son and this firm continued to conduct the business until the spring of 1902, when they sold it to Mr. Shively and on the 1st of November, 1902, our subject admitted

LaPorte Co (IN) Biographical, Daniels, Lewis Publishing Company, p 511, has the following information regarding Jacob Replogle (Jacob Jr/Jacob Sr/John Rinehart):

"At the Old Settlers meeting June 22, 1871, Uncle Jacob Replogle gave three blasts on his conch shell horn, which he gave with a right good will for his dinner remarking as he did so that it had been in the family for 200 years and had been handed down from father to son, named Jacob, until he obtained it.

A conch shell? Such are found at Florida Keys, ?Louisiana; here, again, boundaries shifted back and forth.

RABLOGLE spelling used five times on 1800 US Census records. It is also one spelling used in Peter Replogle's will in 1861 (Peter/John Rinehart).

Former Resident Dies At Beaver

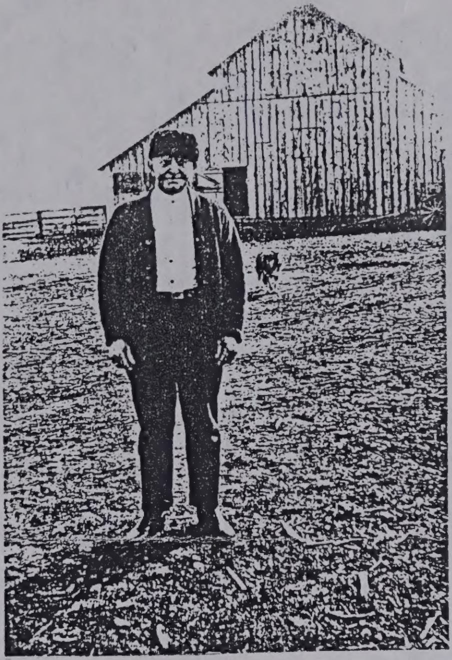
Mose Cripe Passed Away September 16th at the Home of His Daughter

Mose Cripe, who was for many years a farmer in this vicinity, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Diehl, in Beaver, Iowa, September 16, at the age of 87 years and twenty nine days. He was buried at Panora, Iowa.

Mr. Cripe was born August 8, 1849, in Montgomery Co. Ohio, and on November 27, 1873, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Fouts, who passed away July 28, 1899. Ten children were born to this union, three of them preceding him in death. In the spring of 1907 he was married again to Mrs. Gottlieb Coon, who died July 12 1917.

While yet very young Mr. Cripe united with the Church of the Brethren and he has always lived by this faith.

Mr. Cripe leaves to mourn his death four daughters and three sons. They are Mrs. Lona Cripe, of Patterson, Cal., Mrs. Wilda Trostle, of Panora, Iowa, Mrs. Barbara O'Daniels, of Sioux City Mrs. Zona Diehl, of Beaver, Ia., Frank Cripe, of Hannibal, Mo., Irwin Cripe, of Castana, and Menno Cripe, of Panora, Iowa.



Died Sept. 6, 1936

Tuesday, August 8th, being Mose Cripe's 63rd birthday anniversary a family reunion was held at hi home in honor of the occasion. Hi children were all present, which included Mrs. Lona Cripe and son o LaPlace, Illinois, Mr. and Mr Ernest Trostle, Mrs. Oscar Dieh Menno Cripe and families of Panora Iowa, Mrs. Clarence O'Daniels an two boys from Schaller, Iowa, M and Mrs. Frank Cripe of Hannib Missouri, and Irvin Cripe and family who live here.

The reunion was planned as surprise on Mr. Cripe and was carried out successfully. It has bee twelve years since the Cripe famil were altogether and to say that the enjoyed a pleasant day is putting rather mildly. Mr. Cripe was th recipient of a number of presen bestowed upon him by his childre among which was a handsome rocking chair for private use in his declining years, but then it is th sincere wish of Mr. Cripe's man friends that he will not need constant use of the same until he ha passed several more birthday anniversaries sandwiched with many happy family reunions possible.

Spring-1875, Barbara & son Wm. traveled to Clinton Co. Ind. to visit dau. Mary.While there became ill with erysipiles on her face, with no specific drugs available it proved fatal. A kind neighbor who helped care for her also contracted the disease & died. With limited means of communication & transportation there was no way for Samuel to let the Huffords know when he & his dau. would arrive at Lafayette, Ind., so no one was there to meet the train. Consequently they walked the 17 miles over very muddy roads & were nearly exhausted when they arrived. Mary & David Hufford had 2 small children now, so they raised William, age7, along with their children. His sister also remained to help with the care of the children.

Biographical & Genealogical History of

Susan and Lizzie. William W. served in the Civil war, in the Indiana Volunteer Infantry, enlisting in the spring for three years, and died the next fall, of typhoid fever, at Atlanta, Georgia, when but seventeen years of age. His remains were brought home for interment. Mr. Nation, the father of the forementioned children, is yet living at the venerable age of eighty-two years; he is a man of remarkable character, an upright citizen and a representative pioneer of sterling worth. He is a member of the Christian church and a Republican.

In February, 1867, the subject of this sketch emigrated to Howard county, locating upon his present place March 12, where he had bought eighty acres of wooded land. Assisted by his faithful wife, he succeeded in clearing this tract and in making a good farm and a pleasant home. His first habitation here was a round-log house, which had been erected by the former occupant, Seth Nation; but the land had been entered by a man named Clark. Mr. Grose is a member of the Christian church, and in politics is a Republican, but he has never been an office-seeker, though he has served as county supervisor for several years. He has demonstrated his unflinching patriotism by enlisting in the war for the Union, in Henry county, as a private for three months; but his company, which was to be assigned to the Thirty-sixth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, of which his uncle, William Grose, was colonel, was not accepted.

Family of 120.4.7 md Anna Hoover

DAVID R. SHIVELY, one of the most venerable citizens of Bunker Hill, Indiana, and a respected pioneer of Miami county and of Pipe Creek township, is of the sturdy Pennsylvania Dutch stock. His first American ancestors were from Switzerland, being two brothers. The name was then spelled Shiveley. They were among German Baptists who emigrated to the Keystone state between 1708 and 1729, on the establishment of the Pennsylvania government, to escape religious persecution.

Christian ~~John~~ Shively, the grandfather of David R., was a native of Pennsylvania, in which state he married Miss Susanna Cripe, and their children were David, Christian, John, Jacob, Susanna and Elizabeth. Christian John Shively was a pioneer farmer of Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, and was a resident there during the Indian troubles, when he was obliged to leave his home for three years and take shelter in a safe place. In religion he was a German Baptist. Later he emigrated to Montgomery county, Ohio, where it is believed he settled as early as 1806, entered land and cleared and cultivated a portion of it, making a good tillable farm. He was one of the earliest pioneers of that county and a highly respected citizen. He was an elder in the German Baptist church. He could have bought the land where the court-house in Dayton now stands for ten pounds of butter. His son, David Shively, the father of our subject, was born in Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in 1787, and was taken to Montgomery county, Ohio, by his parents when a boy. They came down the Ohio on a flat-boat from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. After he grew up he was married, in Montgomery county, to Hannah Cripe, also a native of the Keystone state and a daughter of John Jacob Cripe. His children were Jacob, Daniel, Barbara, Hannah, Esther and Elizabeth. Elder Cripe was a pioneer of Montgomery county, Ohio, where he cleared a tract of land and reduced it to cultivation and was a prosperous farmer. David Shively settled on land which his father had entered six miles west of Dayton, between Liberty and Wolf creek, and about two and a half miles from the present Soldiers' Home. Here he cleared land and developed a farm of about one hundred and ten acres, to which he added by later purchase until he had one hundred and sixty acres, all of which was fine farm land. He gave eighty acres to each of his children—Elizabeth, Samuel and David R. He emigrated to Pipe Creek township, Miami county, Indiana, in 1853, buying eighty acres of land and clearing it, and here he died, about the age of eighty years, a sincere member of the German Baptist church.

s/o David & Hannah (Cripe)

David R. Shively, whose name heads this sketch, was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, December 13, 1820, received a limited common-school education and was married in his native county in October, 1843, to Annie Haines, who was born in 1826, in Pennsylvania, the daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth (Myers) Haines. Her father was of sturdy Pennsylvania Dutch stock, and also German Baptist, a man of strict principles and consistent conduct. By his first wife his children were: Isaac, George and Samuel. The mother of these children died and subsequently Mr. Haines was united in marriage with Elizabeth Myers, and the children by this union were: Annie, Michael, Catharine, Samuel, Stephen, Rudy and Jesse.

(Isaac Geo & Sam Haines)

After marriage Mr. Shively located first in Montgomery county, Ohio, on a tract of eighty acres of land which his father had given him and lived there four years, when he moved to Germantown Pike and was a resident there also for four years. Here he had a fine farm of one hundred and twenty-eight acres a half mile from the Soldiers' Home, which he ultimately sold in 1854, for five thousand five hundred dollars. Moving to Pipe Creek township, Miami county, Indiana, he purchased two hundred and twenty acres of land, mostly in timber, and cleared it, bringing out a good farm. For ten years he also owned and ran a gristmill on Big Pipe creek. By his never failing industry and concentration of energies and active judgment, he at length had for himself a splendid home, was prosperous in all his business and an influential citizen. By his first wife his children were John and Elizabeth.

Mrs. Shively died October 9, 1864, having always enjoyed a reputation for industry and the accomplishments of a good house-wife, and she was a devoted member of the German Baptist church. By his second marriage, February 3, 1867, at Arcadia, Hamilton county, Indiana, Mr. Shively was united with Mrs. Fanny S. Murray, whose maiden name was Correll and who was born January 14, 1828, in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, a daughter of John and Elizabeth (Stouffer) Correll. Her father was of French and German ancestry and a son of David and Susan (Hess) Correll. John Correll also was a native of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, was a distiller by trade and a farmer. His children Correll's was Christopher, Fannie, Elizabeth, John, Susanna, Annie, Catharine, Mary, Sarah, Barbara, Joseph, Jacob and Andrew. Mr. John Correll moved to Indiana in 1838, locating in Wayne county, and after a residence there of five years removed to Hamilton county, also in this state, settling upon one hundred and forty acres of land, where he made a farm in the forest and established a good home for his children. His days were ended in Hamilton county, where he died, December 4, 1885, at the venerable age of eighty-five years, having been born June 29, 1800. He was a member of the Mennonite church and was much respected. He brought up his children in good habits and was himself a very exemplary citizen. Mrs. Shively was about ten years of age when she came in 1838 and joined her parents in Hamilton county, and at the age of seventeen was married to John Murray, who was born November 13, 1818, in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, and was a farmer by occupation. Their children were Elizabeth, Barbara, Mary, Christopher, Catharine, Annie, Daniel and John. Mr. and Mrs. Murray located in Hamilton county, this state, where he finally died, at the age of forty-one years. He was of Pennsylvania Dutch stock and an industrious, straightforward man.

After marriage Mr. and Mrs. Shively settled upon the Shively homestead in Pipe Creek township, and in 1876 removed to Bunker Hill, where they have a pleasant residence with about twenty acres in a high state of cultivation. On this plat they have planted all kinds of fine fruit trees that can be successfully cultivated in this latitude, besides many ornamental trees; this very comfortable home they richly deserve in return for their many long years of ardous labor.

They are members of the German Baptist church, and politically Mr. Shively votes with the Democratic party. Concerning all the subjects of the foregoing sketch in general we can quote with hearty indorsement the language of Daniel Webster: "Real goodness does not attach itself merely to this life: it points to another world. Political and professional reputation cannot last forever; but a conscience void of offence before God and man is an inheritance for eternity."

DAVID H. CAIN, for several years past a resident of Miami, Indiana, belongs to one of the pioneer families of this state, he having come here with his parents when a boy and settled on a frontier farm.

He was born in Rockingham county, Virginia, April 21, 1824, son of Cornelius and Ann (Kiblinger) Cain. Cornelius Cain along the agnatic line traced his ancestry to the Emerald isle, while from his mother's people he inherited English blood. His father, also named Cornelius, was an officer in the Revolutionary war. After the war he received a grant of government land, about one thousand acres in extent, at the place where Marietta, Ohio, is now located. It is believed, however, that he never obtained possession of the same. He settled in Rockingham county, Virginia, where he passed his life and where he died at a venerable age. His children were John, James, Washington, David, Hyett, William, Ruth, Mary and Cornelius. Cornelius Cain was born in Rockingham county in 1798, was there reared and in that county was married to Ann Kiblinger, who was born there, daughter of Peter Kib-

Daniel Cripe Sr., ~~1795~~ 1785-1865.

Was born in Pennsylvania, came to Ohio about 1812 married Catherine Overholtzer lived and reared their family in Montgomery County, Ohio. They emigrated to near Mishawaka, Indiana about 1930 1830 where they lived a few years. During this time Mrs. Cripe died and was buried in a field. The grave is now lost, but is somewhere within the city of Mishawaka. In 1840 1840 he purchased and moved to a farm one-half mile west of Acme acme on North side of road, on what is now the Samuel Boyer farm where he married Susanah Replogle and spent the remainder of his life. On this farm he grew all kinds of orchard fruits.

Six sons and two daughters were born by the first wife. One daughter died in infancy. Other children were as follows: Jacob, 1817-1900; Daniel Jr., 1819-1881; Stephen 1821-1845; Susanah 1823-1911 who married John J. Ulrey; John N., 1825-1865; and Isaac, 1834-1868. The entire Cripe family were German Baptists and spoke the Pennsylvania Dutch. John Miller an old resident who recently died at age 96 remembered Mr. Cripe as a large raw-boned man, positive and decided in speech and action. His remains lie in the old Cripe Cemetery one-fourth mile east of Acme.

Jacob Cripe, 1817-1900.

Jacob, oldest son of Daniel Sr. was born near Brooksville, Ohio. Came to Mishawaka, Indiana with his parents in 1838, remained there until 1842 when he went to Clinton County, Indiana married Anna Metzger in 1842, where a son Daniel was born in 1843. The mother died and Daniel was reared by Jacob Shively. He was afterward married to Leah Wolf from Ohio. Daniel remained in Clinton and Carrol Counties the remainder of his life. Jacob came to Wabash County in about 1844 and married Elizabeth Frantz, daughter of Nicholas Frantz. They settled on Crooked Creek just north and east of Acme where they reared their family and lived the remainder of life.

They reared a family of seven children and were married as follows: Catherine to Andrew Metzger of Clinton County; Lydia to Joseph Metzger of Clinton County; Susannah to John Brumbaugh of Montgomery County and later to John Musselman of Carrol County, Indiana; and Henry to Anna Long of Wabash County; Henry was born, has always lived on and still owns the place owned by his father. Elizabeth married Riley Graybill. The mother of these children died 1875 and Jacob was again married 1880 to Mary Ulrey.

Mr. Cripe was a most highly respected citizen, was a member of the German Baptist Church. When the church divided in 1881 he went with the Old Brethren, donated the land and helped build the church which now stands one mile east and one-half mile north of Acme. He was a deacon in the church, was buried in Cemetery near by.

He was a pioneer farmer and also operated a saw mill for a time on the creek just north of where the Old Brethren Church now stands.

David Cripe Sr., 1814-1855.

David son of Daniel Sr. born in Montgomery County, Ohio, married there in 1836 and came at once via Richmond and Indianapolis to a place four miles south of North Manchester where they lived but one year. They then founded their home on Crooked Creek on the same farm now owned and occupied by his grandson David S. Cripe. The following children were married as follows: Isaac C. (Veteran thresher of Acme) to Mary Frantz; Hannah to Joseph Neher; Esther to Jacob Albright; Barbara to John Buckingham and David E. to Miss Bigler.

David Sr. was not only a farmer but mechanically inclined, being both a good carpenter and blacksmith. He wrote a good hand in both English and German. He built a dam across the creek and operated a saw mill just east of where David S. Cripe's buildings now stand. This was a mill operated by water power, the saw working up and down through the log. It was operated and cut much of the lumber used in the neighborhood, for many years. Soon after his death the machinery was sold and the frame building and dam soon went to ruin. He was a sturdy pioneer, industrious, and frugal of same religious faith as the Cripes and made a valuable contribution to the community. He died of pneumonia in 1855 when the writer, his youngest son was but two weeks old. His widow lived until 1894. Remains of both lie in the little cemetery one-fourth mile east of Acme.

The Cripes owned all of section 36 and one-half of the section of land adjoining on the west, these two sections lying immediately north of Acme. Daniel married Barbara Gripe. Three children were born and married as follows: Elizabeth to George Frantz; Noah to Susan Ulrey; and Jacob to Anna Robinson. The mother died and Daniel re-married to a widow, Polly Mohler, which brought into the family, Henry, John and Elizabeth Landis and children were Lydia, Ellen and Melvina. Jacob Jr. was married to Hannah Shively, and the following children were born: Edna, Samuel, and Jacob.

DANIEL CRIPE, 1785-1865, was about 55 years of age when he and his family settled west of North Manchester in 1840. He was born in Pennsylvania, most likely in Huntingdon County, the fourth child of Daniel and Lovina (Replogle) Cripe. A Daniel Kripe appears on the Montgomery County, Ohio, tax list for 1804 and is assumed to have been his father.

Daniel Cripe married Catharine Overholtzer, 23 August 1812, in Montgomery County. In 1828 with the families of several of his brothers and sisters, he moved to St. Joseph County, Indiana. He is said to have been the first settler to turn a furrow in the Elkhart prairie. Daniel lived there for about ten years; and during that time, his wife died and was buried in a family plot in the farm. By 1926 the grave site was lost within the city of Mishawaka.

After he moved to Pleasant Township, Daniel lived near the end of the lane leading north from State Road 114, near the intersection with the Ogden road. This land was owned by Samuel Boyer in 1926. On this land, Daniel grew many kinds of fruit. It is noted that at about this time, commercial cherry production was an important enterprise in the area about North Manchester.

Daniel Cripe married (2) Susanna Replogle after he came to Pleasant Township. She was the daughter of Peter and Elizabeth (Shively) Replogle and was buried at Cerro Gordo, Illinois, with her parents. Daniel has been described as a large, raw-boned man, positive and decided in speech and action.

Daniel Cripe died 22 May 1865, age 79-10-10
Old Cripe Cemetery

It has been reported that six sons and two daughters were born to Daniel and his first wife and that one died in infancy. The remaining seven were:

1. David, 1814-1855, see his family

2. Jacob, 1817-1900, see his family

3. Daniel Jr., 1818-1881, see his family

4. Stephen, 1820-1845, married Elizabeth Cripe on 27 July 1841 in Kosciusko County. His wife was probably the Elizabeth Gripe who died 7 March 1843. Her stone, in the German Baptist Cemetery in Jackson Township, gives no age at death.

a. Catharine, born after 1850, married Joseph Metzger, son of "Uncle Jonny" Metzger.

John is said to have been a heavy-set man. He built a house and barn in 1863 and 1864 on a farm about two miles north of the intersection of State Roads 13 & 114. These were large, substantial buildings and some believe the physical strain contributed to his early death.
Mary (Metzger) (Skiles) Cripe moved to Clinton County and married (______) Kinzey. She died there, a very old person.

7. Isaac D., for whom no marriage records were found, but he was recorded in the household of his father in the 1860 census with Catharine, age 28, and Fanny, age 1.

It is on the north side of State Road 114, overlooking the creek that was formerly an important mill stream. A spot just below the cemetery was used for baptisms as late as 1920, at least. The cemetery has not been used for many years, and several tombstones have been removed to other cemeteries.

Descendant of C6 - Daniel

Butterbaugh, was a native of Virginia, and his wife's maiden name was Lydia Mishler. Jacob Butterbaugh was born in Stark County, Ohio, July 31, 1828. He received a fair education, and during his youth devoted his attention to agricultural pursuits. He has been twice married. The first union was with Frances Herr, by whom he had nine children, only three survive, viz., Ellen, Isaiah and Sarah. Mrs. Butterbaugh died May 20, 1875, at the age of forty-seven years. Jacob was again married, April 23, 1876, to Mary Karn. Her parents were natives of Ohio. By the latter marriage they have two children—Franklin and Daisey. Mr. Butterbaugh came to Wabash County in 1850, and settled upon the present homestead, which at that time was covered with forest, but is now a valuable farm and has ample and substantial buildings. Himself and wife are members of the German Baptist Church.

D. S. T. BUTTERBAUGH was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, February 13, 1833. His parents, Henry and Lydia (Mishler) Butterbaugh, were natives of America. He chose the occupation of farming early in youth, and has since been an industrious tiller of the soil. Mr. Butterbaugh came to Wabash County, Ind., in 1853, and remained in the employment of different farmers, during a period of three years. He was married, October 30, 1853, to Phebe A. "Mrs. Burger Dies After Operation: Taken Suddenly Ill in Store Friday and Passes Away Saturday Morning"
Following a brief illness with appendicitis in which an operation was resorted to in the hopes of saving her life, Mrs. E. L. Burger died Saturday morning at 8:15 at the Isaac Cripe home west of this city. [North Manchester, IN]
Mrs. Burger was in town Friday morning and was first taken sick while shopping at the Oppenheim store. As she suffered greatly she was hurried to her home and Dr. Shoemaker was called. He diagnosed the case as apendicitis and called Dr. Holloway of this city and Dr. Metzger of South Whitley for consultation. An operation seemed the only hope so Dr. O. S. Runne's a specialist of Indianapolis was sent for to assist. The operation was performed and it was learned that the case was far more serious than the symptoms had indicated. Death followed shortly after.

DANIEL CRIPE JR., 1818—1881, the third son of Daniel Cripe Sen., was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, and came to Pleasant Township with his father from St. Joseph County, Indiana. He married Barbara Cripe on 17 March 1842 in Kosciusko County. She was the daughter of Jacob C. Gripe and Daniel's second cousin. Daniel and his wife appear in the 1850 census with three children: Susan, Elizabeth and Noah. Cemetery records indicate that they may also have had Sarah and Hiram who died young.

It is said, like his brothers, he first built a log house near Crooked Creek. The location was some distance west of the present church house on Road 13. In 1875, he built the brick house north of the church, now occupied by Orville Metzger. This place was known as the Jacob Karn place in 1926. Daniel also moved the barn from his former home-site to its present location.

Daniel Cripe Jr., was a breeder of fine horses, and his death resulted from being kicked by a horse.

Daniel Cripe died 24 April 1881, age 62 years
Barbara, wife of Daniel Cripe, died (1 or 21) February 1853, age 30-3-14

Other sources state that Daniel was born on 1 September 1818. The children of Daniel and Barbara included the following:

1. Mary, daughter of Daniel & Barbara Cripe, died 30 January 1846, age 3-0-9
Old Cripe Cemetery

2. Susanna, 14 April 1845, 25 May 1860. She appears in the 1860 census.

3. Elizabeth, married George Frantz, 17 October 1869, in Wabash County.

Their children were: Tressa Brandenburg, Elmer E. Frantz, Dan and Emma.

4. Noah, married Susan Ulrey, daughter of Jacob Ulrey.

5. Jacob E., born prior to 1 February 1851, married Anna Robinson, said to have been living in 1881.

Daniel Cripe Jr., (repeat) married (2) Mrs. Polly Mohler, the widow of Samuel Mohler, on 5 October 1853 according to Wabash County marriage records. The Mohler family came to Jackson Township before 26 September 1850, the date of the 1850 census. According to The Wabash County History, 1884, Samuel Mohler died on 26 November 1853, but this does not agree with other records. Kosciusko County Will Book I shows that Samuel Mohler made his will on 1 January 1850, and his will was presented in court by his wife, Mary, and Isaac Albright on 13 January 1851. The witnesses were Samuel Ulrey and John Snell. They certified his age as 32 years. His children were not named in his will. No cemetery records were found for Samuel Mohler.

The known children of Samuel and Polly Mohler are presented here.

Eliza, born about 1831, probably married Jacob B. Shively on 29 October 1859 in Wabash County. David Ulrey was the minister.

Henry Mohler, born about 1842, taught school at Acme school house in 1866-1867. He was mustered out of the 113 Regt., Ind., Vol., on 2 December 1865. It is said his daughter, Lulu, (perhaps Luella) was reared by Daniel Cripe and that she married Thomas Lair(d).

Lydia, born about 1844, probably married Christian D. Shively on 31 March 1861 in Wabash County.

John E. Mohler, born 28 October 1845 in Dauphin County, Pa., married Clara Shaw on 6 April 1869. They had one surviving child, Mertie E. Mohler. John was first a farmer and later operated a drug store in Laketon, Indiana.

Edwin Mohler, born about 1850.

Daniel and Polly (Mohler) Cripe had one child. She is recorded here in the order of Daniel's children.

6. Ellen E., married Franklin Reahard on 27 December 1874 in Wabash County.

Franklin Reahard died 22 July 1896, age 43-0-15
Ellen, his wife, died 25 March 1882, age 27-9-2

Their son, Daniel F. Reahard was a respected teacher at Laketon, Indiana, for many years.

LIVES FOR EIGHTY YEARS IN COUNTY

OLDEST MAN IN POINT OF CONTINUOUS RESIDENCE DEAD.

Peter Cripe, of Clay Township, a Descendant of a Revolutionary War Hero—Funeral Arrangements.

A descendant of a revolutionary war hero, who is buried in South Bend, passed away Monday in the death of Peter Cripe at his residence in Roselawn, Clay township, this county. In addition the death removed a resident, who in point of continuous residence, was the oldest in the county. He had lived in the county 80 of the 86 years of his life. He was a pioneer settler of German township and began his career in a log cabin his father erected on a clearing. His maternal grandparents were Margaret Reprogle Roof and Peter Roof, whose bodies were buried in the city cemetery. Mr. Roof served with distinction in the revolutionary war and in the war of 1812.

Peter Cripe was the son of John and Eva Roof Cripe, of German township. He was born May 12, 1824, at Dayton, O., where his paternal grandparents Daniel and Barbara Cripe, are buried. When he came to this county at the age of six he settled near the old portage, where he resided until 1852, when he moved to Clay township, near his late residence.

His education was principally obtained in the subscription schools in vogue in the pioneer days, but his advantages in this respect were of quite a limited nature. When his father died in 1849, the duties of the household fell upon his shoulders and those of a younger brother. The latter died within a year and added to the duties of the survivor.

Mr. Cripe was marrie Jan. 14, 1855 to Miss Tilistia A. Stiles, who survives in addition to seven of the nine children born to the union. A sister, Mrs. Fannie Kline, of 1613 South Kline street, the sole survivor of the 12 children born to Mr. and Mrs. Cripe is also living. The Peter Cripe children are: John W., Charles E., David S., Jacob W. Cripe and Mrs. Aaron Ullery, all of this county; Mrs. J. B. Wrightsman, of Mancos, Col., and Mrs. J. W. Boltinghouse, of Wellington, Kan. Mr. Cripe is survived by 14 grand children and two great grandchildren.

Politically Mr. Cripe was a staunch republican and often said with much pride he had voted for every republican presidential candidate since able to vote. For many years he was a member of the German Baptist church and did much to further the work of the church.

The funeral will be held Thursday. Private services will be held at the residence in the afternoon at 1:30. Public services will be conducted in the German Baptist church in Clay township at 2 o'clock, Rev. H. W. Kreighbaum officiating. Burial will be in the Ullery cemetery.

GRAVES REGISTRATION FORM No. 1—THE AMERICAN LEGION

As a member of the County Committee of the St. Joseph County Historical Society, I have done research on the Witter Cemetery recently inquired about by "J.B." in Action Line. Witter Cemetery was first named "Sweet" cemetery. At one time the owner of this land was Sam Witter. In addition to Civil War soldier David R. Cripe, at least one other Civil War soldier is buried there — Prosper M. Wagener. David Cripe was a member of Co. B, 48th Indiana Infantry, and died in service while stationed at Indianapolis. His mother was Eva Roof Cripe, daughter of Revolutionary War soldier, Peter Roof Sr., and his wife Margaret. Eva, born June, 1790, died on Dec. 12, 1863. No stone exists on her grave in Witter Cemtery. — P.M., Lakeville Thanks for digging up the extra info, Ms. M.

Schneeberger on North Miami ave. with Mrs. T. J. Emley and Miss Lillian Hoskins assisting in extending hospitalities.

Because of illness only about half of the members could be present but they enjoyed very much the interesting program on Bolshevikism which was led by Miss Ida Hall. Mrs. Jesse Laughlin read a splendid paper on Bolshevism in New York.

The election of officers resulted in the reelection of Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson as president of the department and Miss Lillian Hoskins as secretary.

The Department decided to help a needy family of the city by making a comfort and this planned to be done Friday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson. Mrs. W. O. Amann, the President of the City Federation sent in a request that each member donate something to the Rummage sale which will be held in the near future. The articles are to be brought to the next meeting which will be in two weeks with Mrs. O. S. Kenny. The committee appointed to see that each member is told, was Mrs. T. J. Emley, Mrs Dan Toy and Mrs. Kenny.

The hostesses served refreshments during the social hours. Mrs. M. F. Keith and Miss Florence Wyman were guests.

DEATH OF AN AGED LADY

C21- 213

The beautiful life of an aged lady ended at eight o'clock Thursday evening when Mrs. Rose Anna Cargill passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edd McVay. She had been ill three weeks with sickness brought on by her age. For the past year she had made her home in this city with Sheriff and Mrs. McVay and was in the eighty-first year of life. Almost all of those years were spent in Jackson Center where she was greatly loved for her kind and helpful way of living. During her girlhood she united with the Methodist church and was always an active member.

Her maiden name was Rose Anna Colgan and her marriage to Oliver Cargill took place August 12, 1860. They were blessed with four children, of whom Mrs. Edd McVay is the only one living. The three who preceded her in death were Mrs. Elmer Davis, Miss Clara Cargill and Allen Cargill. Her husband died two years ago.

Four grandchildren survive her with her only daughter—Miss Bess McVay, of Cleveland, Lewis McVay, of Providence, R. I., Harry Davis, of Lake Placid, N. Y., and Miss Mildred Davis.

The funeral services will be held from the McVay home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The remains will be laid to rest in the Port Jefferson cemtery.

WANTED—Salesman for established tea and coffee route, man with automobile preferred. See Mr. Childers, 126 south Franklin avenue.

At the last meeting of the Piqua Rotary club a committee was appointed to draw up resolutions expressing the sincere regret of every member of the club at the loss of Thomas J. Appleyard. The resolutions are as follows:

Be it resolved that the Piqua Rotary club convey, through its secretary, to the Newark Chamber of Commerce and Rotary club the keen regret we feel in losing the companionship of Mr. Thomas J. His enthusiasm, optimism and public spirit together with his sound character have cemented Mr. Appleyard to us in such a way that his leaving Piqua causes sincere regret, not only among Rotarians but among all the people of the city.

Signed,

NOTE:

Found a marriage for Mary to a George Wales
23 Sept. 1869 noble co, Ind. Ref. - 2-234
I dont beluive this is our mary.
Mary and James Ackerman and 4 children
Were in Steuben Co in 1880.
In 1900 their dau. Daisy was in Steuben county with husband Oliver Benfer. Oliver's father was also with them and was a widow.
Roots Webb had Mary married to Henry Benfer,
Olivers father?
This could be -: James Ackerman died after 1880 and Mary married Henry Benfer. Then
Mary died before 1900.

We were unable to find George Wales anywhere in the census. If she did marry him the marriage date is not correct.

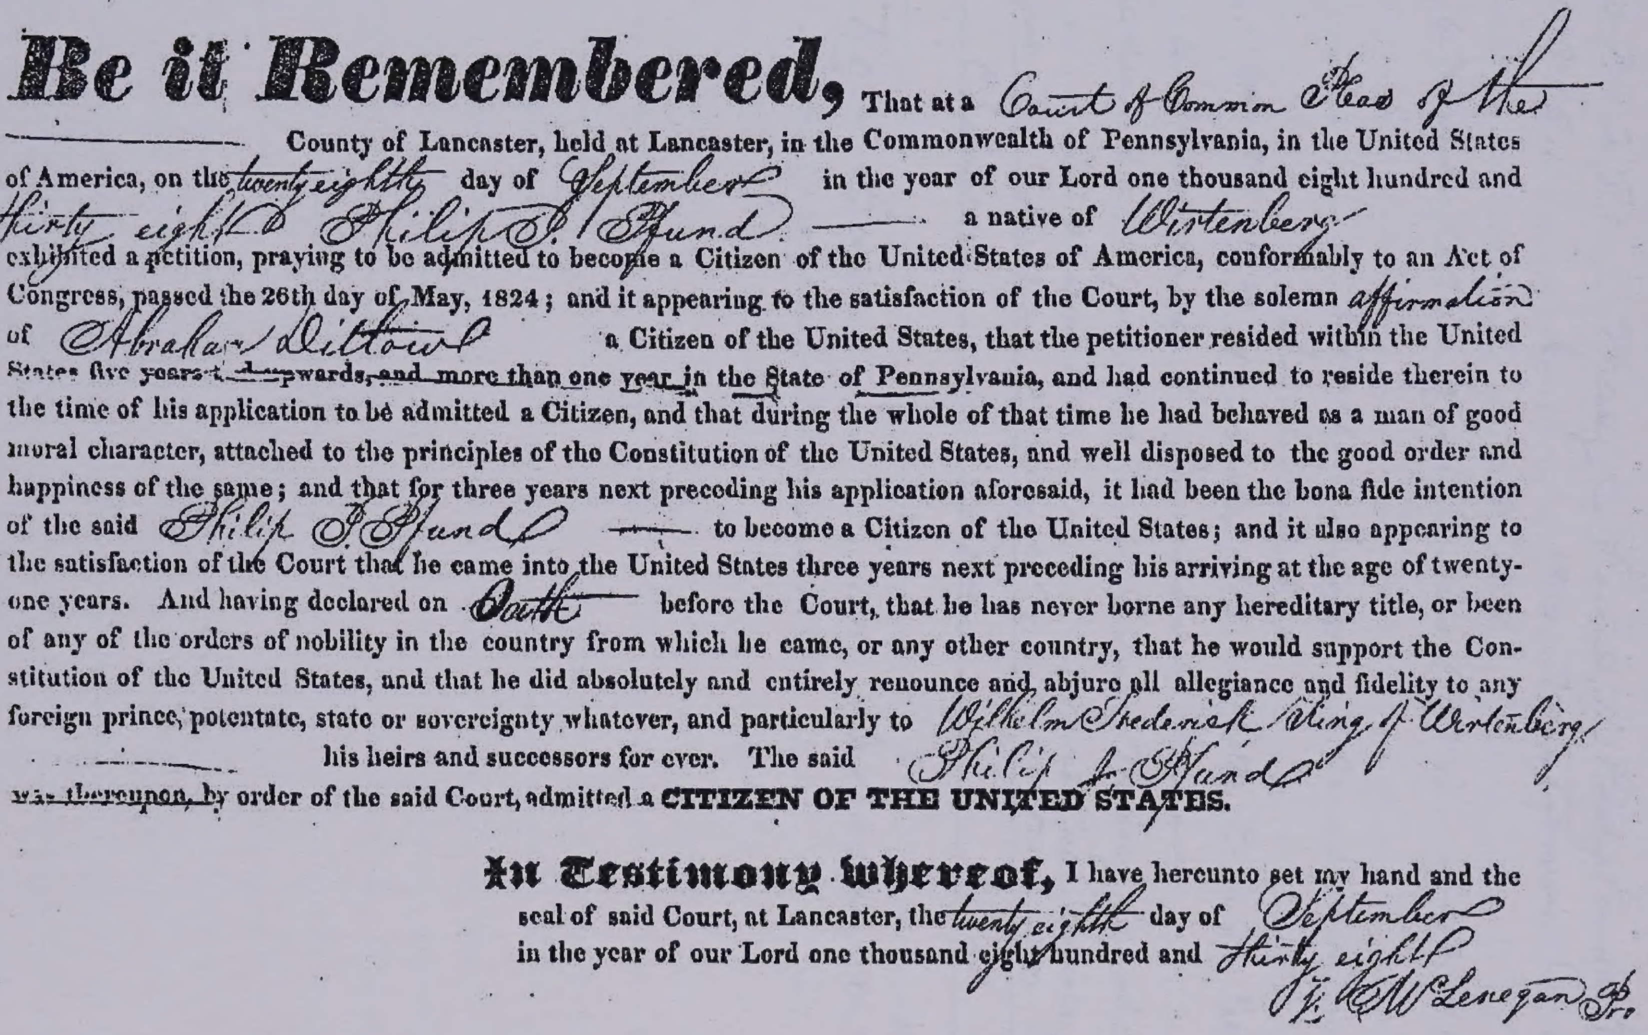
Phillip J. Pfund Naturalization



Be it Remembered, That at a Court of Common Pleas of the County of Lancaster, held at Lancaster, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, on the twenty eighth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight Philip J. Pfund a native of Wirtenberg exhibited a petition, praying to be admitted to become a Citizen of the United States of America, conformably to an Act of Congress, passed the 26th day of May, 1824; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, by the solemn affirmation of Abraham Dittow a Citizen of the United States, that the petitioner resided within the United States five years and upwards, and more than one year in the State of Pennsylvania, and had continued to reside therein to the time of his application to be admitted a Citizen, and that during the whole of that time he had behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and that for three years next preceding his application aforesaid, it had been the bona fide intention of the said Philip J. Pfund to become a Citizen of the United States; and it also appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that he came into the United States three years next preceding his arriving at the age of twenty-one years. And having declared on Oath before the Court, that he has never borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in the country from which he came, or any other country, that he would support the Constitution of the United States, and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to Wilhelm Frederick King of Wirtenberg his heirs and successors for ever. The said Philip J. Pfund was thereupon, by order of the said Court, admitted a CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES.

In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said Court, at Lancaster, the twenty eighth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

Should be 54

David Martin, aged about 65 years, a teamster in this city, died very suddenly Monday. While unloading lumber at the new ice house west of town, his eyes became glassy and his muscles rigid and he fell to the ground. His companions assisted him into the wagon and he revived for a few minutes, only to be attacked a second time on the way home. After arriving at his home on East Canal street he soon fainted again and died without a struggle. Doctors differ in their theories as to the cause of death, and as no post mortem examination was made the mystery will not be settled.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

David Martin, aged about 65 years, a teamster in this city, died very suddenly Monday. While unloading lumber at the new ice house west of town, his eyes became glassy and his muscles rigid and he fell to the ground. His companions assisted him into the wagon and he revived for a few minutes, only to be attacked a second time on the way home. After arriving at his home on East Canal street he soon fainted again and died without a struggle. Doctors differ in their theories as to the cause of death, and as no post mortem examination was made the mystery will not be settled.

ICE FISHING TRIP ENDS IN TRAGEDY

William Malott, 44, Drowned Sunday at Hawk Lake; Funeral Wednesday.

Despite the heroic efforts of two companions to effect his rescue, William Malott, age 44, a workman employed here on a federal relief project, was drowned early Sunday afternoon at Hawk lake where he broke through rotten ice while on a fishing expedition. The lake is adjacent to Lake Maxinkuckee, at Culver.

Malott, who resided at 15 East Second street, was in the company of Earl Kellar, 38, of 478 East Fifth street, and Henderson (Lefty) Sheets, 48, of 268 West Fifth street. Sheets escaped a similar fate when he managed to make his way to the shore after breaking through the ice.

Final rites for Malott were conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Drake funeral home with the Rev. Robert Ashman, First Brethren church pastor, in charge. Burial was in Corinth cemetery, four miles west of Mexico.

Were Leaving Lake

The Peru men had driven to the upstate lake early Sunday and had spent the morning fishing through the ice near another group of Peru men. After the second group left, the trio decided to return to Keller's car and come home or go to another lake to continue fishing. Although Keller indicated to his companions that the ice appeared to be unsafe,

About 150 feet from the lake shore the ice about Sheets, who was a few feet ahead of Malott, began to crack and he fell into the water just as Malott, the heavier of the two, went down into a five-foot depth. Sheets did not lose his presence of mind and slowly made his way in the icy water to the bank. Malott apparently was dazed and began to struggle.

"I knew it would be foolhardy for me to go out on the ice," Keller said, "and so I yelled to Malott to stop struggling and started to run to a nearby farmhouse. The farmer sensed what had happened and ran to meet me carrying a rope. In the meantime Sheets had tried to reach Malott with a pole, but it was impossible.

Slumps Under Water.

"We threw the rope and it struck immediately beside Malott, but apparently his strength was so sapped that he could not lift his arms to grasp it. A moment later his head slumped in the water with just the top part showing above the surface," Keller said.

Malott died in an upright position; his feet were buried in the mucky bottom. Both Sheets and Keller agreed that had not Malott spent his strength in useless struggles, he might have been removed from the shallow water safely. A pulmotor was rushed to the scene from Culver, but efforts to revive the stricken man were futile.

Aside from bruises on his arms and legs, received when he fought his way through the broken ice, Sheets did not suffer ill effects from his experience. Keller was only slightly wet.

Malott was born in Indianapolis on June 15, 1893, a son of the late Edward and Lavina Malott. He was united in marriage with Geneva Lunsford in 1920 and was a world war veteran. Surviving besides the widow are a daughter, Geraldine, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Eva Scott, Mexico, and

Clyde and Betty Mae (Pound) Bair

Although the Bair family has roots reaching into Ohio and northeastern Indiana, Clyde Bair (surname spelling was changed from Bear in 1860) was born in Minnesota in 1914, and returned to Indiana in 1933. He resided in the Leesburg area for several years and moved to Warsaw in 1938.

In February, 1939, he was married to Betty Mae Pound of the Oswego area. Betty was the oldest child of Merl and Jessie (Rosbrugh) Pound. Loren J. Pound, a brother, continues to reside on the "Family Farm," and a sister, Evelyn (Pound) Fawley is deceased. Betty is the granddaughter of Jacob H. Pound, whose half brother, John, owned and operated the grocery store and Post Office in Oswego. The building has subsequently been used as a museum for the Kosciusko County Historical Society.

Clyde and Betty Bair continued to reside in Warsaw where a son, Roger Allen, was born in 1942. In 1943, the family returned to the Oswego farm to aid in its operations, which was as so many others, affected by the war. After various employment in Warsaw, the Bair family moved into the town of Leesburg in 1950, where Clyde and Betty continue to reside. After establishing residence in Leesburg, Betty Bair was employed as secretary-treasurer for the Leesburg School. She continued in that position for twelve years, retiring in 1964.

Roger Allen Bair and Sally J.

Clyde Bair was employed by Hull's Transfer
Co in 1950 & became owner in

Albert in 1964. Sally is the daughter of Herschel and Helen Albert who farmed successfully east of Leesburg for many years. Roger and Sally moved to Ypsilanti, Michigan in 1964, where he was employed by General Motors Corporation. He returned to Warsaw in 1973 to assist his father in the operation of Hull's Transfer Company.

Roger and Sally reside in the Rolling Hills addition to the city of Warsaw, and have three sons enrolled in the Warsaw Community Schools.

Brant A. Bair was born in Goshen, Indiana in 1969; Aaron S. Bair was born in Ypsilanti, Michigan in 1971; and Shane A. Bair was born in Warsaw, Indiana in 1975. Roger is currently employed by Yellow Freight System, Inc. Clyde Bair, Leesburg, Indiana

Loren and Jo Ann (Reed) Pound

Philip J. Pfund was born in Wurtenburg, Germany on May 16, 1815 and immigrated to America with his parents when four years of age. They settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania where Philip grew to maturity. He became a naturalized citizen in 1838 and some time later changed his ancestral name to Pound. He traveled to Montgomery County, Ohio in 1839, and there met and married Rosanna Martin who was a native of that state. He purchased 80 acres of land on the Troy Pike about seven miles north of Dayton, and resided there for a number of years.

Philip and Rosanna were the parents of three children, Mary C., John F., and Sarah Ellen. Rosanna died in 1853, and later Philip married Anna Wolf, while still living near Dayton. This marriage produced one son, Jacob H. Pound, grandfather of Loren J. Pound.

In 1859, Philip moved his family to Elkhart, Indiana where he purchased 100 acres of land near Goshen, Indiana.

In 1870, Philip sold his interest in Elkhart County and moved his family to Kosciusko County, purchasing 120 acres near Oswego on which he resided until his death in 1891. Philip was a good Republican, and it was said that he moved from Goshen to get away from the Democrats.

Ellen Pound, Philip's daughter, never married. She lived for a number of years on her own farm located three miles northeast of Warsaw.

John F. Pound served as trustee of Plain Township, and was postmaster and proprietor of the "John Pound Store" in Oswego for more than 30 years. John F. Pound was married to Sarah J. Denman and they were the parents of a son, P. Harold, and a daughter, Adria A. Harold married Flossa Davis, and in 1967 they deeded the John Pound Store building to the Kosciusko County Historical Society. Adria married William A. Orr, and they are the parents of Sarah Ellen, who married John E. Buhrt, and William F., who married Elizabeth "Betty" Lou Goshorn.

Jacob H. Pound married Nancy Ellen Bowman, and together they owned 147 acres one-quarter mile south of Oswego, where they lived for several years, and where Merl Pound was born in 1884. Upon Philip's death in 1891, Jacob H. Pound bought his brother and sister's share of 133 acres. At this time Jacob moved his family to the original farmhouse on the 133 acres. They rebuilt the house, built a scale barn which was used by neighbors for weighing grain, and also built new barns. These buildings are all in use today. The second son, Howard W. Pound, was born in 1896. Jacob and Nancy lived on the farm until some time around 1914, moving to Warsaw where Jacob died in 1937.

Merl Pound married Jessie Rosbrugh in 1911, and to this family were born: Betty Mae in 1916, Evelyn in 1921 (now deceased), and Loren J. in 1933. The farm by this time was 300 acres. His wife, Jessie, died in 1940. Merl Pound was active in community affairs and was musically inclined. He was a member of the Leesburg Silver Cornet Band. He had a rare sense of humor and enjoyed life to the fullest.

Howard W. Pound married Lillian Walton, and they resided in Chicago, Illinois and Louisville, Kentucky.

Betty Mae married Clyde Bair, and to this family was born a son, Roger Allen, who married Sally L. Albert. Clyde and Betty owned and operated Hull's Transfer Company in Warsaw for many years. Evelyn married Philip K. Fawley, and to this family was born a daughter, Nancy Ann. Evelyn was employed by the Wawasee Community Schools for many years as a bookkeeper, and Philip is currently head of the English department at Wawasee High School.

Loren J. Pound married Jo Ann Reed, and to this family were born Terrie Jo, Karen Kay, Linda Lee, and Jeffrey J. Terrie Jo married Stanley P. Trout, and they have one daughter, Laurie Jo; Karen Kay married Douglas J. Conley, and they have a son, Adam D. and a daughter, Keriann K.; Linda Lee married James L. Howard, and they have two daughters, Sara A. and Shawna L., and a son, Scott L.; and Jeffrey J. is unmarried.

Upon the death of his father, Merl Pound, Loren J. bought his sister's share of the 300 acres, and continues operating the farm and lives with his wife, Jo Ann, in the house built by his grandfather in the early 1900's. The farm has been in the Pound family for 115 years and received the Centennial Family Farm Award and is also recognized as a Hoosier Homestead Farm,

HENRY BURKET was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, and is a son of Isaac and Catharine Burket, the former a native of North Carolina, and the latter of Ohio. Mr. Burket was raised on a farm, receiving only a common education. In 1854, he married Miss Jane Hulse, by whom he had five children, three of whom are yet living. His wife died on April 12, 1870, and on the 17th of the following September he married Mrs. Rachel A. Grim, by whom he has three children, all living. Mr. Burket has, since 1854, been the owner of a saw-mill, but in business he is classed as a farmer, living on his own farm of 160 acres, three miles west of Union City, and besides this he owns 80 acres in Darke County, Ohio. DANIEL AND HENRIETTA BURKET

Written by Esther Rohrer

Daniel Burket, of Holland Dutch extraction, was born 11 March 1831 at Richmond, Wayne Co., Indiana. His mother-tongue was spoken in the home. He learned to speak English at the age of twelve (12) years when he was "bound out" to work in an English speaking home. His mother's name was Martin. Her family originally owned the land on which the city of Dayton, Ohio was later built.

No further genealogical data has been obtained on the background of either the Burket or Martin families.

Daniel was married 17 March 1853, in Grant Co. Indiana, to Henrietta Owings, daughter of Richard Owings. Ann (Nancy) Henrietta was born 1 March 1831 at Zanesville, Muskingum Co. Ohio. She had four sisters, "Nacky", Elizabeth, Mary and Ruth and two brothers, Nathaniel and Richard Lemon.

One story of her sister, Mary, is interesting. Mary was very ill from an undetermined cause. She apparently died. Funeral arrangements were made and she was "laid out" and dressed for burial. The brother, "Lemon", arrived home opportunely. He said she wasn't dead. He ordered a tub of hot water and, with help, slid her over in position and put her feet in the water. She moved a toe and after a time was completely revived. Mary told them she was conscious of everything being done but could make no response. She lived for many years after this episode.

Henrietta's brother "Lemon", born in 1812 was a Scout with Fremont and Kit Carson. Their headquarters was in St. Louis, Missouri. When they returned from scouting trips, Lemon usually went into Washington D. C.. There he would buy a complete new outfit of clothing and go home for a visit. The family thought him a very handsome man. He was much loved and highly respected. He was engaged to Fremont's sister. While he was gone on a scouting trip, she died of Typhoid Fever. He did not marry until late in life. He was with Fremont and Kit Car-

Her family originally owned the land on which the city of Dayton, Ohio was later built.

No further genealogical data has been obtained on the background of either the Burket or Martin families.

Daniel was married 17 March 1853, in Grant Co. Indiana, to Henrietta Owings, daughter of Richard Owings. Ann (Nancy) Henrietta was born 1 March 1831 at Zanesville, Muskingum Co. Ohio. She had four sisters, "Nicky", Elizabeth, Mary and Ruth and two brothers, Nathaniel and Richard Lemon.

One story of her sister, Mary, is interesting. Mary was very ill from an undetermined cause. She apparently died. Funeral arrangements were made and she was "laid out" and dressed for burial. The brother, "Lemon", arrived home opportunely. He said she wasn't dead. He ordered a tub of hot water and, with help, slid her over in position and put her feet in the water. She moved a toe and after a time was completely revived. Mary told them she was conscious of everything being done but could make no response. She lived for many years after this episode.

Henrietta's brother "Lemon", born in 1812 was a Scout with Fremont and Kit Carson. Their headquarters was in St. Louis, Missouri. When they returned from scouting trips, Lemon usually went into Washington D. C.. There he would buy a complete new outfit of clothing and go home for a visit. The family thought him a very handsome man. He was much loved and highly respected. He was engaged to Fremont's sister. While he was gone on a scouting trip, she died of Typhoid Fever. He did not marry until late in life. He was with Fremont and Kit Carson when they discovered the three islands in Great Salt Lake, Utah and at the battle of San Marcus Mts. near Santa Barbara, Calif. The Indians were on the war path on their way to Santa Barbara. Fremont and his men climbed the mountain and stopped the Indians at the pass. As additional weapons, they dislodged the huge rocks there and rolled them down on the approaching indians. In later life "Lemon" lived at Circleville, Kansas. A son and daughter visited the "Burket" families.

Daniel and Henrietta Burket began their wedded life in a log cabin near the "Limberlost Swamp" country at Upland, Indiana not far from the larger city of Muncie.

In the spring, when the sap started to run, the Burkets and the Owings relatives, who lived near, took their camp equipment and iron boilers to the maple forest. The men tended the sap buckets and the women boiled it into syrup and sugar. Small fluted pans were used to mold the sugar some of which was saved for Christmas presents.

Six of the nine children of Daniel and Henrietta were born in this Indian home, Julia Ann born 21 Dec. 1855, Isaiah B. born 29 July 1857, James H. born 10 Jan. 1859, Richard Carson born 8 Sept. 1860, George E. born 13 Aug. 1862 and Icelina, a blind, deaf and dumb child who died when quite small.

Jake Borth, Daniel's nephew, lived with the family many years.

Daniel served in the Union Army from 11 August 1862 to 26 Sept. 1865. He enlisted first in Co. B. eighty Fourth Infantry (Indiana) and the second enlistment was in the U. S. Engineers Corps. He built pantoon bridges. In both enlistments he was a Sargeant, refusing the first Lieutenancy of Co. B. under General Granger. He was home several times on furlough.

At one period, he was gone a long time with no word to his family and most of them gave him up as lost in service. It was during this time that the little afflicted "Icy" died and Mary Elizabeth (Mollie) was born 5 July, 1865.

Days at home were busy ones, caring for the family of young children and taking care of the small farm. Evenings, after the children were in bed, Henrietta and the older daughter, Julia Ann, spent the hours sewing. One evening when quietly working thus, they heard a cough and Henrietta said joyfully, "There's Papa".

Daniel it was, but very weak and emaciated. They learned his troops were without food and on poor rations for days after the Battle of Chattanoga. Typhoid Fever struck their camp son when they discovered the three islands in Great Salt Lake, Utah and at the battle of San Marcos Mts. near Santa Barbara, Calif. The Indians were on the war path on their way to Santa Barbara. Fremont and his men climbed the mountain and stopped the Indians at the pass. As additional weapons, they dislodged the huge rocks there and rolled them down on the approaching Indians. In later life "Lemon" lived at Circleville, Kansas. A son and daughter visited the "Burket" families.

Daniel and Henrietta Burket began their wedded life in a log cabin near the "Limberlost Swamp" country at Upland, Indiana not far from the larger city of Muncie.

In the spring, when the sap started to run, the Burkets and the Oxinger relatives, who lived near, took their camp equipment and iron boilers to the maple forest. The men tended the sap buckets and the women boiled it into syrup and sugar. Small fluted pans were used to mold the sugar some of which was saved for Christmas presents.

Six of the nine children of Daniel and Henrietta were born in this Indian Ranch, Julia Ann born 21 Dec. 1855, Isaiah B. born 29 July 1857, James E. born 10 Jan. 1859, Richard Carson born 8 Sept. 1860, George H. born 13 Aug. 1862 and Icelina, a blind, deaf and dumb child who died when quite small.

Jake Burris, Daniel's nephew, lived with the family many years.

Daniel served in the Union Army from 11 August 1862 to 26 Sept. 1865. He enlisted first in Co. B, eighty fourth Infantry (Indiana) and the second enlistment was in the U. S. Engineers Corps. He built pontoon bridges. In both enlistments he was a Sargeant, refusing the first Lieutenancy of Co. B. under General Granger. He was home several times on furlough.

At one period, he was gone a long time with no word to his family and most of them gave him up as lost in service. It was during this time that the little afflicted "Icy" died and Mary Elizabeth (Mollie) was born 6 July, 1865.

Daniel it was, but very weak and emaciated. They learned his troops were without food and on poor rations for days after the Battle of Chattanoga. Typhoid Fever struck their camp and he was one of the victims. He was so ill, his life was dispaired of but he was moved into Chattanoga where he was several weeks recovering. He was discharged 26 September 1865 and returned home.

Chills and fever plagued the family in this swamp country, especially Daniel and Julia Ann.

After the Civil War, the South was destitute. The young men in the Union Army came home to run farms and families barely making a living. Many decided to move to the frontier lands in the West being opened by the Government for settlement.

In 1870, Daniel and his wife Henrietta with their six children, their worldly possessions packed into two covered wagons, left Indiana for points West. The first stop was near Mt. Aetna, Iowa, where they lived for three years and the eighth child, Cora Rosalie, was born 28 Aug. 1871. The winters here were cold and disagreeable so after a three year sojourn the family decided to move again. This time they traveled to Kansas and settled on a farm. On this farm on 30 Nov. 1874, the ninth and last child, Elsie May, was born.

Here the family battled against drought, grasshoppers and other adversities. One year Daniel and James went back to Iowa to shuck corn and brought a load back to Kansas for seed. Daniel also worked at cutting logs for Terry Simpson (sockless Jerry) when not otherwise occupied. They were very industrious and managed well and the family prospered. The children secured a good education for those days and four of the eight children became teachers.

The Burket family lived in Jackson County twelve years. The three older children were married during this time. Julia Ann married Layfayette Crane 11 May 1878. A daughter, Claudia, was born 23 March 1880. "Lafe" died and Julia Ann started teaching again and Claudia was reared by the Burket grandparents. On 23 Nov. 1879, Isaiah was married to Miss Sue Chevis at Holton, Kansas and James H. married August Fees on 30 October 1881. George E. went to California where he settled and married Olive Harlan. They had six children. Richard C. Burket went to Potawatomie, Kansas to teach school and on 26 Oct. 1886 he married namie Clara Richards there.

In June 1884 Daniel and Isaiah went to Clark County Kansas and filed on land. Daniel a quarter section one mile east of Acres and Isaiah a quarter just West of him which is now in the Dunn and Hoffman Ranch. They returned home after a weeks absence and began making plans to move their families as soon as winter was over. The plans materialized in March 1885.

The Daniel and Henrietta Burket family now consisted of four daughters and a granddaughter. They, Isiah and wife, Sue, were joined by three more families, James Burket and wife Augusta, Henry Gardner, wife and baby daughter, Ethel (later Mrs. George T. Wilson) and Harlan Day (Daigh) wife and two year old daughter.

The five men chartered a railroad car and shipped the most necessary things by freight to Dodge City. Daniel came with the car bringing one team and wagon on it. Arriving in Dodge City, he spent the greater part of the three weeks the families were in transit hauling the shipped goods to their claims near Ashland. Meantime, the five covered wagons were making their slow trek across Kansas, followed by 25 or 30 head of cattle.

To the younger members of the party, this was a delightful experience but for the older ones, a very responsible undertaking. They left their homes in Jackson Co. on Monday 13 March and arrived in Clark Co. on 5 April, Easter Sunday.

Henrietta Burket had requested that they not travel on Sunday. On Saturday afternoon of their trek westward, Isaiah went on ahead to look for a good camping site for the Sunday rest. This was strictly adhered to until the last Saturday night they camped near old Clark City, a mile or two North-west of present site of Ashland. Being so near the journey's end, the caravan traveled on Sunday to their destination arriving at the Waldon home on Little Sand Creek about 4:00 P. M. near the farmstead sites previously filed on by Daniel and Isaiah. The women of the party were the first women Mrs. Walden had seen since November of the previous year. Daniel had made arrangements to use an empty sod house about a mile from the Waldons until they could build their homes. After a short visit with the Waldens, the caravan moved on and pitched camp at the sod house where they lived while the other three men located homesteads. At this date, the better land of Clark Co. had been staked out. Henry Gardiner filed on a quarter West of the Campbell (Dunn & H.) Ranch, James Burket on a quarter south and east of the ranch on Big Sand Creek and Harlan Day on one, ten miles West of Ashland.

Adversity hit this little company. After a period of droughts and crop failures, the Daniel Burket family alone remained. The others, discouraged, moved back to Eastern Kansas. Later, they all came back but James and Augusta Burket. After several moves they bought a farm west of Winfield which he owned at the time of his death.

Daniel Burket, his sons married and gone from home before the westward move, depended on his wife and daughters, procipally the youngest, Elsie May, to develop and operate his farm. Elsie, in courage, strength and interest in farm and ranch life, equalled a man as a farm hand.

While still a young girl in East Kansas, she rode a horse back several miles each week-end to bring her older sister, Julia, home from her weekly school teaching assignment. On the long trip to Clark County, she did part of the driving, caring for the stock and general chores.

The older sisters, Julia and Mollie (Mary Elizabeth), were pioneer school teachers and Julia was Superintendent of Schools in Clark Co. Elsie finished the eighth grade, went to Ashland to Normal, received her teaching certificate and began her first school teaching assignment just before her 16th birthday.

Spelling matches and local talent literaries were the social gatherings in this early day.

On one occasion at the "Klinger School", Daniel and two daughters were the last three spellers standing. Julia missed but Daniel and Elsie spelled on until the crowd was weary. Finally Daniel missed a word and Elsie was victorious for the night. Daniel said as a boy he had often walked as much as twelve miles to attend and engage in spelling contests.

One time Elsie hitched a green broke colt with an old mare to go meet her dad who was over due. She knew he was stuck in Big Sand Creek on his way home from Englewood with supplies.

Shortly after coming to Clark County on November 27, 1887, Cora Rosalie married Samuel Gribble and Mary Elizabeth (Mollie) married 25 October 1892 Harry Dunham. On 12 January 1893 Elsie May married John W. Severe and Julia Ann married (her second) Walter Coons 1901.

About this time, Daniel and Henrietta moved into Ashland where they maintained their home doing their own work until 1918.

On 17 March 1903 they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary with a big dinner in their home. Seven children, twenty grandchildren and one great grand child as well as many friends, shared this joyful day with them. In 1916 they celebrated their sixty-third Anniversary of their marriage - both were in good health and enjoying their leisurely life.

In 1918, Henrietta's health failed and they moved in with their youngest daughter's family where they spent their declining years. Henrietta passed away 16 July 1919 and Daniel's life ended on 7 Oct. 1922.

Not too much data has been gathered on some of the descendents of the Daniel Burket families excepting the ones who came to Clark Co. to make their homes:

Wash. Mater, who is making his home with Henry Price, has an heirloom, or relic in his possession. It is a chest made of black walnut lumber, nicely panneled on the front side; it is four feet in length, has several drawers inside, and bears the letters "H. C.," 1781, and is therefore over a century old. It was made for his great grandmother when she was a young girl, and Washington inherited it.

THE MORTUARY RECORD.

Jacob Martin, Oldest Pioneer, Dies in 94th Year

Jacob Martin, doubtless the oldest pioneer resident of Mishawaka, died Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock at the home of his son, Jacob Martin, jr. residing just north of the city. Death was due to a serious accident which befell Mr. Martin last Saturday, when in a fall he suffered a fractured thigh. His extreme age rendered recovery impossible.

Mr. Martin was born in Ohio, Nov. 8, 1821, and came to Mishawaka with his parents when he was nine years old. The family settled on the land on which the Orphan's Home is now situated. Mr. Martin engaged in the meat business for a time and was well known throughout the county.

He was twice married, his first wife being Margaret Sumstine, who died 17 years ago. In 1902 he married Mrs. Catherine Reynolds, who died three years later.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the home of his son. Rev. J. A. Hartman, of South Bend, officiated, and interment in city cemetery.

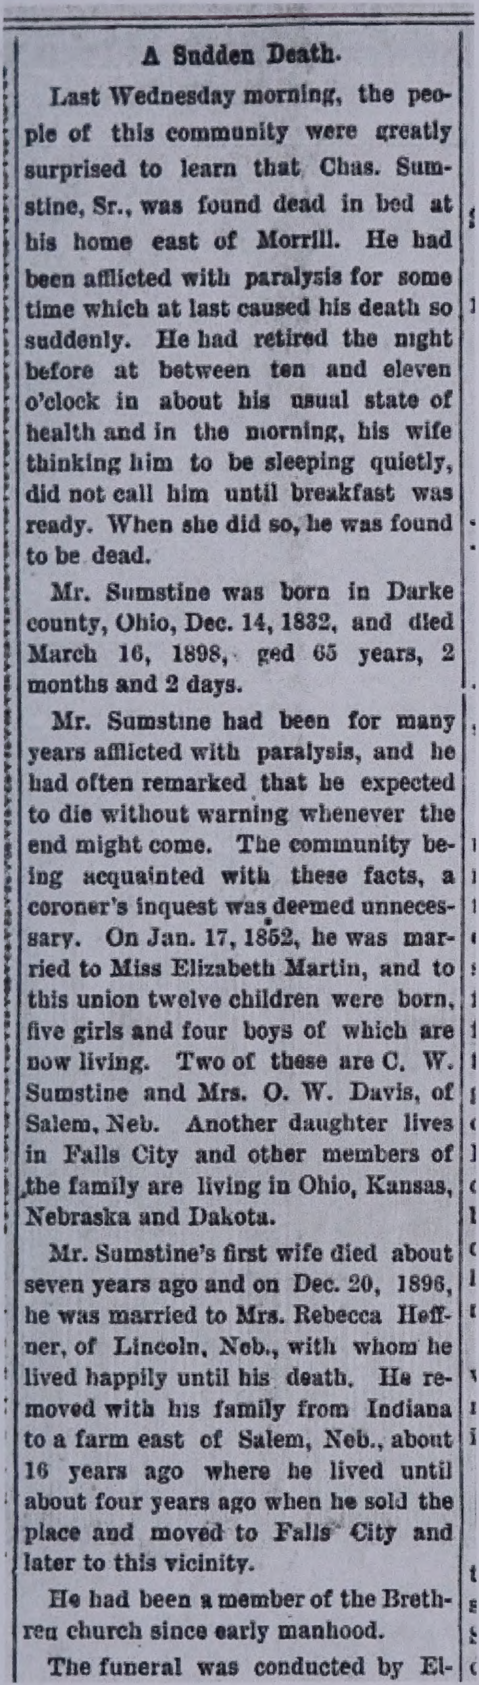
Find A Grave



A Sudden Death.

Last Wednesday morning, the people of this community were greatly surprised to learn that Chas. Sumstine, Sr., was found dead in bed at his home east of Morrill. He had been afflicted with paralysis for some time which at last caused his death so suddenly. He had retired the night before at between ten and eleven o'clock in about his usual state of health and in the morning, his wife thinking him to be sleeping quietly, did not call him until breakfast was ready. When she did so, he was found to be dead.

Mr. Sumstine was born in Darke county, Ohio, Dec. 14, 1832, and died March 16, 1898, ged 65 years, 2 months and 2 days.

Mr. Sumstine had been for many years afflicted with paralysis, and he had often remarked that he expected to die without warning whenever the end might come. The community being acquainted with these facts, a coroner's inquest was deemed unnecessary. On Jan. 17, 1852, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Martin, and to this union twelve children were born, five girls and four boys of which are now living. Two of these are C. W. Sumstine and Mrs. O. W. Davis, of Salem, Neb. Another daughter lives in Falls City and other members of the family are living in Ohio, Kansas, Nebraska and Dakota.

Mr. Sumstine's first wife died about seven years ago and on Dec. 20, 1896, he was married to Mrs. Rebecca Heffner, of Lincoln, Neb., with whom he lived happily until his death. He removed with his family from Indiana to a farm east of Salem, Neb., about 16 years ago where he lived until about four years ago when he sold the place and moved to Falls City and later to this vicinity.

He had been a member of the Brethren church since early manhood.

The funeral was conducted by El-

Julia Deitel, married to Leo Deitel. Caroline Huff married to Oscar Huff, and Lottie D Martin only daughter of Lott D Martin, dec'd, a son of said Daniel Martin.

That on the 20" day of February 1894, Josephus Neff and Calvin Neff executed to the said Daniel Martin, in his lifetime, a deed of defeasance, for Lot Four, in Fahlstroms Addition to the Town of Nappanee, Indiana, which is recorded Book 89 page 267, in Elkhart Co. Ind. That said deed was to secure the payment of two notes, one for $260, and one for $600, bearing date of Feb.27 1894 and Dec.18 1893. That said two notes and all debts secured by such deed of defeasance have been fully paid to the administrator, and the aforesaid Neffs are demanding a deed to said property. Wherefore he prays that the Court will appoint a commissioner to be authorized to make a good and proper deed to Calvin Neff, for the above described property, conveying the title to said Calvin Neff- that being the wish of said Josephus and Calvin Neff.

The Grim Reaper

Mrs. Jennett Knoblock, nee Martin, wife of Jacob Knoblock, was born July 26, 1855, in St. Joseph county, Ind. and died at the family home a mile and a half south of Bremen Friday morning, July 16, 1909 at the age of 53 years, 11 months and 20 days. The funeral was held Sunday in Salem Evangelical church, conducted by Rev Schuermeier.

In 1873 the deceased was united in marriage to John Geiselman. Three children were born to them, Mrs. Charles Berg and two sons, Arthur and Oliver, who died in childhood. Her marriage to Mr. Knoblock occurred in 1881. To them two children were born both of whom died young. For nine years following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Knoblock lived in Missouri, coming here in 1893. She was a member of the Christian church and active in church work so long as her health permitted. In 1892 Mrs. Knoblock suffered a stroke of paralysis from the effects of which she remained an invalid. Some four weeks ago she sustained a second stroke, but rallied from it and recovery appeared likely. But last Thursday night the third and fatal stroke came, resulting in her death Friday morning. Mrs. Knoblock's father, Daniel Martin, died nine years ago and her mother in December. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Charles Berg, one grandson, one brother, Monroe Martin, three sisters, Mrs. George Schlosser, Mrs. Oscar Hatt and Mrs. Leo Dietel, in addition to a large circle of more distant relatives and many friends.

CHARLES L. BERG

Charles L. Berg, fifty-eight years old, well known Bremen merchant and a life-long resident of this community died at his home here Friday afternoon after an illness of about two weeks. He had been in failing health for several months, but had continued in charge of his grocery store until a stroke made it impossible for him to continue.

Charles Lewis Berg, son of John and Catherine (Smith) Berg, was born Jan. 5, 1880. In 1901 he was united in marriage with Miss Birdie Geiselman, who preceded him in death more than twenty-five years ago. Two sons of this marriage, Carl D. of San Francisco and Gerald of Bremen, survive. On Oct. 31, 1913, he was united in marriage with Ethel Ranstead, who survives. He leaves also one brother, Elmer Berg of Reno, Nevada, and one sister, Mrs. Harmon Carbiener, of LaPaz.

Mr. Berg had been identified with the business life of Bremen for many years, most recently as a grocer. At one time he served several years as Bremen postmaster.

Funeral services were held at the Huff funeral home Monday afternoon with Rev. William C. Anderson of First Evangelical and Reformed church in charge. The Bremen Masonic lodge had charge of the service at the grave, extending their funeral honors in the beautiful and impressive ritualistic service of the order.

German Township Trustee And Well Known Farmer.

George Schlosser, seventy-four years old, one of the well known citizens of Marshall conuty and a lifelong resident of this community, died at his country home southeast of Bremen Sunday night after a long illness. He had been in failing health for about four years and had been unable to do any of his usual work for three years. He had been bedfast during the last two months.

Always actively engaged in the public affairs of his home community and county, George Schlosser was one of the now famous Schlosser Brothers who contributed so largely to the development of the creamery business in Indiana. He never joined the firm, however, choosing to remain on the farm.

The story of his life was told in an obituary prepared by his friend, Charles Price, and read by Mr. Price at the funeral service yesterday. Mr. Price said:

"George Schlosser, one of the most successful and best known farmers of Marshall county, was one of nine children, born to Jacob and Margaret Schlosser. Those remaining are Gustav of Frankfort, William of Bremen, Samuel of Plymouth, and Mrs. Elizabeth Penrod of Bremen. Frederick, Philip, Henry, Jacob, with the mother and father, have preceded him in death.

"During his youth he attended the public schools of German township, and assisted his parents with the work on the farm.

"More than fifty years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Martin. To this union six children were born, one of these dying in infancy. Thoes remaining are Eva, Verne, Monroe, Walter and Dolly; also nine grandchildren, Helen, George, William, Daniel, Joseph, Ronnie and Verna Schlosser and John David and Arthur Martin Weissert.

"Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Schlosser moved to their present farm and set up a home of their own, in what was then an almost unbroken wilderness. Here was laid the foundation of a real home such as has made this country of ours great. Forest trees were to be felled, a house was to be built, land was to be brought under cultivation. Here was a time when no national code or thirty-hour work week system was planned. Here he and his faithful companion worked and planned from early dawn to far into the night. Here it was that the real spirit of true Americanism was woven into the very fabric of not only these early pioneers, but also their neighbors and friends.

"Although transportation was then slow and tedious, storms were never too severe, nights were never too dark, for them to look after the needs of others.

"At one time in the now distant past, a neighbor's buildings were wrecked by the wind. Mr. Schlosser left his own work, gathered some of his friends and assisted the unfortunate neighbor in repairing the buildings and getting a new start.

"In the early years of his married life he drove a cream wagon, many times not getting home until far into the night. Then it was the wife and mother gathered the children about her and listened for the rattle of the wagon on the distant corduroy roads that wound their way through the unbroken forests.

"More than a score of years ago the Bremen Grange was organized. Mr. Schlosser was a charter member and the first master. During the years he hardly missed a meeting and passed on holding the honor of the Silver Sheaf. During the past he freely gave of his means and advice to advance the work of this the greatest of farm organizations and like King Saul of old said to David, 'his seat is now vacant, he will be missed.'

"Mr. Schlosser had opportunity to leave the farm and enter into commercial work, but preferred the life he had just chosen. He was always deeply interested in new methods to make farm life better and happier.

"In addition to his farm work, he found time to serve his fellow citizens in a number of public offices. To these duties he gave the same careful attention that he gave to his personal affairs.

"He served as trustee of Germa township from 1919 to 1923; as coun ty commissioner from 1925 to 1928 and as a member of the county coun cil from 1931 to 1935. He was faith ful to his duties in all of these posi tions, and was not only a member o these boards but a leader whose ad vice was always much sought an never missed a meeting if it was a all possible for him to attend. H was a life long member and activ worker in the republican party. Dur ing the last few years he has no been in good health but he retaine a cheerful spirit and interest in al the problems of the day.

"Although his life was filled wit many business perplexities he neve failed to take care of his own hom affairs. On this foundation this hom was builded which endured for mor than half a century. From this hom these children went into homes o their own, taking with them the rea spirit of true Americansm that wil endure for all time."

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning in Salem Evangelica church in Bremen. Rev. Wm. C. Anderson of First Evangelical churc was in charge of the service and th sermon was by Rev. MRS. HATFIELD DIES IN CRASH ON ROAD 331

Injuries Sustained When Cars Collide On Bourbon Road Prove Fatal; Victim Succumbs After 2 Hours.

Mrs. J. Arthur Hatfield, well known resident of this community, died at about four oclock Wednesday afternoon in Parkview hospital in Plymouth from shock and injuries sustained about two hours earlier in an automobile accident on Road 331 south of Bremen.

Others injured were Mrs. Charles Wasson of Dublin, Ind., who has a broken jaw, broken collarbone, and other injuries. Two of her four sons, who were riding with her and her husband at the time, have severe skull injuries. Edward, ten years old, has a possible skull fracture. Richard, twelve years old, was also injured about the head. A two year old son was not hurt, and the baby, six months old, has only a bruised eye as a result of the crash.

The other passenger in the Wasson car, Mrs. Wasson's sixteen year old sister, also escaped with minor injuries, as did Mr. Wasson, who was driving.

Mr. Hatfield had numerous cuts and bruises but was not injured seriously. It was thought that he could be brought home today from the Plymouth hospital, where he was taken after the accident.

The accident occurred when Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield, who were driving south on Road 331, started to turn into the driveway at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vernon, who live on the Mrs. Emma Schlosser farm on the east side of the road. Mr. Wasson and his family, coming from the south on Road 331, crashed into the Hatfield car as it started to make the turn.

Mrs. Hatfield sustained a broken leg and internal injuries in addition to severe shock. She was taken to Parkview hospital at once, but the shock proved too great for her and she lived only about two hours.

Mrs. Hatfield was a daughter of George and Emma (Martin) Schlosser and was born December 29, 1881, in Bremen. In 1910 she was united in marriage with J. Arthur Hatfield, who survives. She leaves also three brothers and one sister: H. Verne Schlosser of Bremen, Monroe Schlosser of Frankfort, Dr. Walter K. Schlosser of Plymouth and Mrs. Charles Weissert of South Bend.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at ten oclock at First Evangelical and Reformed church. Burial will be in the Bremen cemetery.

Henry Schlosser, Formerly Of Bremen, Succumbs After Three Years of Failing Health; Funeral Monday.

Henry Schlosser, who grew to manhood in this community and was for many years one of its leading citizens, died Thursday night at his home at Indianapolis after an illness which began about three years ago. He was sixty-seven years old and had lived in Indianapolis since 1909, when he went to that city from Bremen to have charge of the development and expansion of the Schlosser Brothers corporation, of which he was a founder.

Many relatives and friends from his old home here went to Indianapolis Monday to attend the funeral services.

Mr. Schlosser was the fourth son of Jacob and Eva Martin (Karrer) Schlosser, who settled in German township in 1855. Henry Schlosser was born March 28, 1863, and was reared on the old Schlosser homestead near Bremen. In 1891 he was united in marriage with Mary Duzan, who preceded him in death with their infant daughter. Later he was married to Mrs. Emma (Snyder) Martin, who survives him.

In 1884 Mr. Schlosser and his brother Philip started the creamery and produce business which has grown into the present Schlosser Brothers corporation. From its meager start in a building erected at the corner of the home place near Bremen, the business has grown until it is now one of the large creamery and dairy concerns of the middle west. As the business increased, a new creamery was built in Bremen and another was added at Plymouth. Three other brothers, Jacob, Gustave and Samuel, were taken into the company and further expansion went on as the years went by, including plants at Fort Wayne, Frankfort and Indianapolis, with many stations serving these plants.

Henry Schlosser moved from here to Indianapolis in 1909 and remained active in the business until about three years ago, when failing health compelled him to retire.

Mr. Schlosser is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Lottie Aldag and Mrs. Lulu Linstead, of Indianapolis. He leaves also five

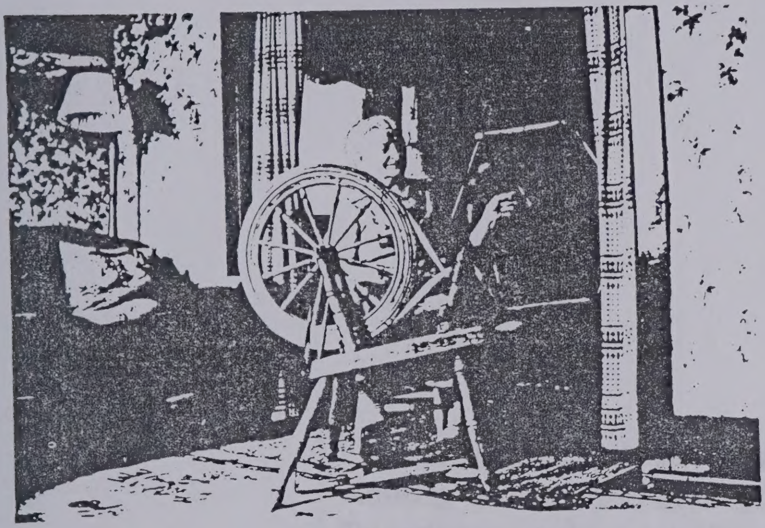
My Mother At The Spinning Wheel



My grandmother, Elizabeth (Burkett) Mow, born March 5, 1829. Spun the wool for her wedding dress on this wheel in 1853, to marry John Elneras Mow b. March 28, 1824, that year. We have this dress and spinning wheel in our museum near Walkerton, Indiana.

This is the buildings my grandpa, John Stuntz II, built. He built the house in about 1879 and the barn in 1882. He served in the Civil War. He built many log cabins for people. He moved here from the log cabin he made for themselves located 2 miles west of Breman, Indiana, in about 1859. Grandpa worked hard and earned over 400 acres in Marshall County. My Dad rode horse back from here to court his girl twelve miles away. This place is owned by the grandson of Geronimo who owns the place today.
